The integrated assessment system centered around the literacy skills and academic habits allows for the coherent evaluation of student literacy development over the course of the year and vertically across all grade levels.

Handbook of Writing Research, Expository Writing Mervin James Curl, 1919

Getting to the Core of English Language Arts, Grades 6-12 Vicky Giouroukakis, Maureen Connolly, 2012-04-19

Design effective CCSS aligned lessons for secondary students. If you want to revamp your secondary English Language Arts curriculum to reflect the Common Core State Standards, this book is the perfect resource. The authors move the implementation of the CCSS for ELA from the abstract to the concrete by providing adaptable exemplar lesson plans in each of the CCSS strands: reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Each lesson template includes intended grade level, band, timeline, and the type of student writing involved. Connections to supporting theory, including the Backward Design model, variations to differentiate the lesson for diverse student populations, ways to link the lesson to technology and service learning, reproducible handouts. The lesson narratives also give tips for incorporating technology into lessons and connecting them to enduring theorists in education: Dewey, Bloom, and Gardner. The final section offers collaboration strategies for connecting via technology to colleagues beyond the school building and working together on CCSS based ELA lessons. This practical, easy-to-use guide will help you navigate the most efficient route to creating standards based lessons that optimize student learning.
