Sightings Keith Brown,2008 Keith Brown s literary essays published at intervals over the course of a long career are marked by their engaging flair and independence from intellectual fashion They often explore aspects of the interaction of craftsmanship and ideas that are unnoticed or ignored in the mainstream of critical debate However the full potential of his approach only emerges when these essays are taken together A notable concern of Brown s critical method is to uncover the latent organising principles naturally as various as the author s intentions that lie beneath the surface of any worthwhile extended literary work His sightings reveal the actual contours of literary landscapes seen dimly before SELF-HELP TO
