Media and the Empire Ruth Teer-Tomaselli, Donal McCracken, 2017-10-02 This volume on print and broadcast media in the 19th and 20th centuries highlights the pivotal role that the media played in the establishment and maintenance of imperial power The media bolstered both the ideological and financial objectives of the empire in a myriad of overt covert and downright scandalous ways From jeopardising the introduction of wireless telegraphy in order to maximise the financial gains of the investors of under sea cabling to newspaper proprietors cashing in on the thrilling wonderful and sometimes fabricated adventures of war correspondents in exotic lands the media has had a constant background influence in the public's perception of empire By covering diverse topics from Anthony Lejeune's radio talk show London Letters which supported the Allies by boosting morale and providing a link between soldiers fighting abroad and their families during both World Wars to the complete subversion of imperial influence as in the case of the proliferation of diverse media platforms being used by migrant communities in Britain as a means to promote colonization in reverse the book hints at the politics suspense and intrigue of both the print and broadcast sectors This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts

The Social Practice of Human Rights Joel R. Pruce, 2015-06-16 The Social Practice of Human Rights bridges the conventional scholar practitioner divide by focusing on the space in between The volume brings together cutting edge chapters that together set a new agenda for research grounded in the practice of critical self reflection on the strategies that drive communities dedicated to the advocacy and implementation of human rights The social practice of human rights takes place not in front of a judge but in the streets and alleys in the backrooms and out of the way places where change occurs Contributors to this volume investigate the contexts and efforts of activists and professionals devoted to promoting human rights norms This research takes as its subject the organizations and movements that shoulder the burden of improving respect for human dignity It argues that through a constructive critique of these patterns and practices scholarship can have a positive impact on the political world

The Bible and Gender-based Violence in Botswana Mmapula Diana Kebaneilwe, 2024-04-01 The Bible and Gender based Violence in Botswana foregrounds the rampancy of gender based violence against women and girls in biblical texts and how it resonates with gender based violence GBV in the author s contemporary context of Botswana The volume reads selected texts from the Bible alongside newspaper reports of GBV against women and girls in Botswana to show that while the Bible is taken as an authoritative text within the Botswana context it is riddled with GBV against female persons It asserts that by acknowledging and naming GBV in biblical texts and not concealing ignoring or spiritualizing it contemporary communities of faith will be able to confront the problem in these contexts By so doing the book argues the Bible will become a resource for positive transformation rather than a tool for supporting gender injustice The book appeals to everyone willing to see positive change in regard to gender in equality and is intended for a wide readership including researchers postgraduates church and other representatives of religious institutions and upper level undergraduates

African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Mari-Anna Pöntinen, 2013-03-27 In African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Celebrating Life and Harmony in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Botswana Mari Anna P ntinen analyses contextual interpretations of the Christian faith in this particular church These interpretations are based on the special wisdom tradition which embraces monistic ontology communal ethics in both and the indigenous belief in God as the Source of Life and the Root of everything that exists The constructing theological principle in the ELCB is the downward orientated and descending God in Christ which interprets the Lutheran spirit in a liberating and empowering sense It deals with the cultural mythos which brings Christ down into people s existence unlike Western connotations which are considered to hinder seeing Christ and to prevent existential self awareness Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1992
