Chapter – 1 What is Democracy? Why Democracy?

Definition of Democracy

- It is defined as a form of government where rulers are elected by the choice of people.
- So, the difference between democratic and non-democratic governments is that the power of electing their representative is in people's hands.

Examples of non-democratic governments

- In Myanmar, the army controller becomes the ruler and people over there have no role to play in electing their representative.
- In Saudi Arabia, the representatives are from royal families, this is the base on which they qualify to become kings. Here also, people have no role to play in making decisions.

Features of Democracy

Here are few questions which is necessary to be answered for a true democracy:

- a) Which type of people are going to be elected as rulers and what kind of decisions need to be taken by non-elected officials?
- b) In which circumstances an election is to be considered democratic?
- c) What includes in the elector's population and whether they are equal or have some exceptions?
- d) What is the form of a democratic government? Also, state what are the limitations and freedoms of a decision making by the representative who is elected?
- e) How much is necessary for a democracy to respect the rights of a citizen?

Major Decision by the Elected Leaders

- Pakistani General Pervez Musharraf, in October 1999 led the military and overthrew a democratic government and declared himself the 'Chief Executive'.
- In the year 2002, he changed his designation to President and declared himself an additional 5 years.
- In the year August 2002, he passed the 'Legal Framework Order' which
