Culture as a way of bringing meaning into life is maintained through discourse In search of factors influencing discourse effectiveness this volume brings together young scholars from Russia France Pakistan Slovakia and Lebanon to focus on variation as an essential feature of meaning producing communication in its multiple aspects and settings The book is based on papers presented during online sessions on cross cultural discourse literary analysis and language education of the 7th International Young Researchers Conference Studying and Teaching Philology held in Ulyanovsk Russia in 2017 In Part I Irina Zhuchkova explores variation in academic discourse on discourse In the first two chapters of Part II Hibah Shabkhez discusses the interaction of various culture codes and transformations of a literary character travelling from one fictional world into another and in the next chapter Hibah Shabkhez Ibreez Shabkhez and Azka Mahboob analyse the divergence of stances taken on the same character by its creator and the readers In the final chapters of this section Ibreez Shabkhez and Maksim Duleba uncover mechanisms of expressing conflicting stances with the result of marginalising discourse participants including the stance taker himself Roksolana Povoroznyuk in Part III examines the interpreter's choices in mediating cross cultural literary discourse concentrating on paratranslational techniques and terminological variation both of which involve a lot of translatorial freedom and responsibility Finally Part IV by Christelle Frangieh Fenianos addresses the issue of the second language learner's freedom in choosing the ways of acquiring vocabulary which serves as a gate to the world of cross cultural communication This book will be of interest to researchers postgraduate students and advanced undergraduates working in the fields of philology discourse analysis literature and translation studies and language acquisition Journals of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Quebec Québec (Province). Legislature. Legislative Assembly, 1880 Victor Hugo and the Visionary Novel Victor Brombert, 1984 Victor Brombert reassesses in a modern perspective the power and originality of Hugo's work and provides a new interpretation of Hugo's narrative art as well as a synthesis of his poetic and moral vision The twenty eight drawings by Hugo reproduced in this book are further testimony to the visionary nature of Hugo's imagination Redefining the Real Margaret-Anne Hutton, 2009 What is the literary fantastic and how does it manifest itself in the texts of French and francophone women writers publishing at the close of the twentieth and start of the twenty first century What do we mean today when we talk of the real and realism These are just some of the questions addressed by the papers in this volume which derive from a conference entitled The Fantastic in Contemporary Women's Writing in French held in London in September 2007 This book sets out to refocus through a non realist lens on the works of high profile authors Darrieussecq Nothomb Germain Cixous and NDiaye and some of their less highly publicised contemporaries It analyses and mobilises a wide range of both gendered and non gendered practices and theories of the contemporary fantastic whilst critically interrogating both of the latter terms and their inter relation The Holy Portolano /

Towards a Poetics of Harmony (the) Kathryn M. Grossman, 1986 History of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary in North America Xavier Donald MacLeod, 1866 Catholic literature in this country is not yet rich in works of a historical character and though not a few have appeared evincing great research and worthy of a high place there was still wanting a popular element which genius alone could supply by lending its charm to the often dry details of the historian The devotion to the Blessed Virgin in this country from its settlement to the present day was a theme which had been briefly touched upon by one or two writers Still it was a field which the late lamented author of the following pages entered with all the zeal and devotion of his arden t and impassioned character and as a necessary consequence he gave his work the stamp of his particular genius Few more gifted writers have appeared among us than Xavier Donald Macleod and in undertaking his work material was contributed by his numerous friends The writer of this one who had enjoyed that friendship from boyhood rejoicing to see him about to take up a subject so worthy of his talents furnished him an abundant material which he had collected and feels now perhaps too great a pleasure in his privilege in having contributed to so noble a work as that here presented to the Catholic public Journals of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada Canada.
