Poet of Revolution Nicholas McDowell, 2022-10-25 A groundbreaking biography of Milton's formative years that provides a new account of the poet's political radicalization John Milton 1608-1674 has a unique claim on literary and intellectual history as the author of both Paradise Lost the greatest narrative poem in English and prose defences of the execution of Charles I that influenced the French and American revolutions Tracing Milton's literary intellectual and political development with unprecedented depth and understanding Poet of Revolution is an unmatched biographical account of the formation of the mind that would go on to create Paradise Lost but would first justify the killing of a king. Biographers of Milton have always struggled to explain how the young poet became a notorious defender of regicide and other radical ideas such as freedom of the press, religious toleration and republicanism. In this groundbreaking intellectual biography of Milton's formative years, Nicholas McDowell draws on recent archival discoveries to reconcile at last the poet and polemicist. He charts Milton's development from his earliest days as a London schoolboy through his university life and travels in Italy to his emergence as a public writer during the English Civil War. At the same time, McDowell presents fresh, richly contextual readings of Milton's best-known works from this period, including the Nativity Ode, L'Allegro and Il Penseroso. Comus and Lycidas. Challenging biographers who claim that Milton was always a secret radical, Poet of Revolution shows how the events that provoked civil war in England combined with Milton's astonishing programme of self-education to instil the beliefs that would shape not only his political prose but also his later epic masterpiece.

Established as a legitimate field of study, WE offers a conceptual framework which has influenced scholarship in many related disciplines: contact linguistics, postcolonial Englishes, English as a lingua franca, English as an international language and applied linguistics. This seminal volume will have an excellent balance between theoretical and empirical works focusing on scholarship that has arisen in relation to the Kachruvian Three Concentric Circles model. This book covers topics such as state of the art review of WE, WE and contact linguistics, postcolonial Englishes, English as a Lingua Franca, English as an International Language, WE and applied linguistics, language measurement and testing in WE, language policy and management, language education and dynamic ecologies, language typology, WE as a new canon, WE and corpus linguistics, WE and multimodalities and makes predictions about the future of WE.
