Anthropology Stanley R. Barrett, 1996 The second phase centred around the 1960s as new theories sprang up and methods were refined in order to cope with doubts that a scientific study of culture had been established and with the recognition that change and conflict were as prevalent as stability and harmony The third phase began in the 1970s and continues today dominated by postmodernism and feminist anthropology One of my central arguments will be that beginning in phase two and growing rapidly during phase three a gap has emerged
