The Faithful Spy John Hendrix, 2018-09-18 The true story of a German pastor and Nazi resistor comes to life in the New York Times bestselling author's acclaimed graphic novel. As Adolf Hitler's Nazi party gains strength across Germany, the pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer forms a breakaway church to speak out against the complacency of established political and religious authorities. When the Nazis outlaw the church, he escapes as a fugitive. CPR for the Soul Tom Stella, 2023-10-11 Modern Christianity Daniel Turner, 2016-02-16 Modern Christianity is a religion with compromise, a religion without moral absolutes to guide one's life. Essentially, it is a life lived without Christ as the center, a life where society and modern science have replaced the importance of God and the Bible. These are the dangers of compromise.

DeJonge, 2018-08-17 Bonhoeffer thought and wrote a great deal about political life but he did so neither as a political theorist nor a political activist but rather as a Christian pastor and theologian Most of what he said about political resistance was said as a theologian as one speaking on behalf of the church For this reason his thinking about political resistance can only be understood in the broader context of his theology Bonhoeffer on Resistance provides an account of Bonhoeffer's resistance thinking as a whole. This involves placing his thinking about violent political resistance in the context of his thinking about resistance of all kinds, placing his thinking about political resistance of all kinds into the context of his thinking about political life in general, and ultimately placing his thinking about political life in the broader context of his theology, his thinking about the whole world, and God's relationship to it. To establish the conceptual background necessary for understanding Bonhoeffer's resistance thinking, Michael P. DeJonge begins with a brief account of the theological story in which Bonhoeffer imbeds his account of political life: the story of God's creation of the world, the fall of that world into sin, and the redemption of that world in Christ. He introduces some specifically Lutheran accents to Bonhoeffer's theology that are essential for understanding his political vision, such as the doctrine of justification and the distinction between law and gospel. DeJonge then transitions from Bonhoeffer's theology into his political thinking by presenting the basic conceptual structures he employs when thinking through most political issues. Two important agents or institutions in political life are church and state, and DeJonge presents Bonhoeffer's account of these in light of the material presented in the previous chapters. The volume then presents Bonhoeffer's resistance thinking and activity, which can be considered from two overlapping perspectives: one chronological and the other systematic. This study shows that Bonhoeffer has a systematic, differentiated, and well-developed vision of political activity and resistance.

A Year with Dietrich Bonhoeffer Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2005-12-27 Dietrich Bonhoeffer was only thirty-nine when he was executed by the Nazis in 1945, yet his influence on Christian life has been enormous. His passionate, theology-based opposition to Nazism made him a leader along with Karl Barth in Germany's Confessing Church. Bonhoeffer is embraced by both liberal and conservative Christians, and the integrity of his faith and life have led believers everywhere to recognize him as the one theologian of his time to lead future generations of Christians into the new millennium. His writings are a treasure of spiritual wisdom, social conscience, pastoral care, and theological insights that are an inspiration to us all, no matter what challenges we face. A Year with Dietrich Bonhoeffer showcases his writings, letters, and sermons in a daily devotional format, encouraging and deepening readers' reflections and meditations. With a foreword by Jim Wallis, author of God's Politics, A Year with Dietrich Bonhoeffer will take readers on a 365-day journey of understanding with this deeply spiritual man.

Dietrich Michael Pasquarello, 2025-03-26 Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945) remains one of the most enigmatic figures of the twentieth century. His life evokes fascination, eliciting attention from a wide and diverse audience. Bonhoeffer is rightly remembered as theologian and philosopher, ethicist and political thinker, wartime activist and resister, church leader and pastor, martyr and saint. These many sides to Bonhoeffer do not give due prominence to the aspect of his life that wove all the disparate parts into a coherent whole: Bonhoeffer as preacher. In Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the Theology of a Preaching Life, Michael Pasquarello traces the arc of Bonhoeffer's public career, demonstrating how at every stage Bonhoeffer focused upon preaching, both in terms of its ecclesial practice and the theology that gave it life. Pasquarello chronicles a period of preparation Bonhoeffer's study of Luther and Barth his struggle to reconcile practical ministry with preaching and his discovery of preaching's ethic of resistance Next Pasquarello describes Bonhoeffer's maturation as a preacher his crafting a homiletic theology as well as preaching's relationship to politics and public confession Pasquarello follows Bonhoeffer's forced itinerancy until he became ultimately a preacher without any congregation at all In the end Bonhoeffer's life was his best sermon Dietrich presents Bonhoeffer as an exemplar in the preaching tradition of the church His exercise of theological and homiletical wisdom in particular times places and circumstances Berlin Barcelona Harlem London Finkenwalde reveals the particular kind of intellectual spiritual and moral formation required for faithful concrete witness to the gospel in the practice of proclamation both then and now Bonhoeffer's story as a pastor and teacher of preachers provides a historical example of how the integration of theology and ministry is the fruit of wisdom cultivated through a life of discipleship with others in prayer study scriptural meditation and mutual service Bonhoeffer John W. Matthews, 2011 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's life spanned four decades of the early twentieth century and was shaped within the crucible of two European wars and an economic depression Born in 1906 and raised in an upper middle class German family he was educated to be a pastor further trained as a theologian involved in a plot to assassinate Adolf Hitler and was finally hanged by the Nazis only days before the end of World War II His life story is more than one more tragic episode in the history and horrors of the Holocaust Bonhoeffer's life cannot be simply summarized as only one of trauma and tragedy His was also a life filled with great blessing even when requiring great courage and incredible sacrifice His relationships were life giving and his experiences were rich The authenticity of Bonhoeffer's Christian faith and the integrity of his theology continues to inspire people During that time when most people understandably struggled to protect their own lives as well as the lives of those they loved he often ventured by faith into uncertain territory risking his reputation and life to advocate for others Rarely does one encounter an individual whose inner convictions and outward actions so consistently and courageously match up Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1996 Fiction from Tegel Prison Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2010-09 This book discloses a great deal of Bonhoeffer's family context social world and cultural milieu Events from his life are recounted in a way that embodies and illuminates his theology Characters and situations that represent Nazi types and attitudes are a form of social criticism and help to explain Bonhoeffer's participation in the resistance movement and the plot to kill Adolf Hitler for which he was hanged Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Wayne W.
