The Vice of Luxury David Cloutier, 2015-12-01 Luxury The word alone conjures up visions of attractive desirable lifestyle choices yet luxury also faces criticism as a moral vice harmful to both the self and society Engaging ideas from business marketing and economics The Vice of Luxury takes on the challenging task of naming how much is too much in today s consumer oriented society David Cloutier's critique goes to the heart of a fundamental contradiction Though overconsumption and materialism make us uneasy they also seem inevitable in advanced economies Current studies of economic ethics focus on the structural problems of poverty of international trade of workers rights but rarely if ever do such studies speak directly to the excesses of the wealthy including the middle classes of advanced economies Cloutier proposes a new approach to economic ethics that focuses attention on our everyday economic choices He shows why luxury is a problem explains how to identify what counts as the vice of luxury today and develops an ethic of consumption that is grounded in Christian moral convictions

Great Commission, Great Confusion, or Great Confession? Lucas V. Woodford, 2012-04-26

There is a great debate going on in the church today It centers on one question What is the mission of the church From culturally relevant emerging congregations to strategic methods of organization and outreach many claim they have the answer They say the mission must become missional Yet the churches of North America continue to struggle Uncertainty is growing What does it really mean to be missional Competing claims abound Get the message out Get the message right Great confusion has set in particularly in the postmodern North American church The Gospel is getting lost Yet throughout the ages the creedal confession of the Holy Christian Church has carried her through uncertainty and struggle The Apostles Creed has steadied and stayed the mission of the church for centuries It centers on the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the work of the Holy Spirit the communion of saints the forgiveness of sins the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting This book celebrates the historic mission of the Holy Christian Church and it invites the North American church to do the same

Journey to the Fatherless Lawrence E. Bergeron, 2012-02 The Journey will challenge you to find the kind of life you have always wanted to discover Tom Davis President of Children's Hope Chest and author of Fields of the Fatherless Scared and Priceless The global orphan crisis is too serious to ignore the biblical call is to plain to miss I m thrilled to see Journey to the Fatherless Tony Merida author of Orphanology and Lead Pastor Imago Dei Church and Associate Professor of Preaching Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary The Journey will move a church from thinking to action in responding to the needs of fatherless children Jayne Schooler author of Wounded Hearts Healing Homes and The Whole Life Adoption Book The Journey to the Fatherless is life changing Paparao Yeluchuri President Missions to the Nations India DOES THE CHURCH CARE FOR THE WORLD S CHILDREN The evidence on display tells a troubling story with an ever increasing number of orphans in the world kids aging out of foster care AIDS babies in Africa and toddlers in Haiti whose hair has turned orange from severe protein deficiencies What makes this situation especially tragic is that given our wealth talent and resources the Church can be a powerful agent of change and we have the biblical mandate to do so Do Christians have a responsibility to intercede for and sacrifice their resources for vulnerable children What happens to the Church when we do And when we don't How do we begin The Journey to the Fatherless is written by a former agnostic corporate executive and inventor who was chased down by the Hound of Heaven God then took him to the fields of the fatherless so he could experience what breaks the heart of God What he discovered in serving the least of these has been captured for the Church to use to prepare others for their journey The Journey takes the reader beyond Fields of the Fatherless and The Hole in Our Gospel into a deeper understanding of the problem and the biblical call to action Whole and Reconciled Al Tizon, 2018-10-16 The ministry of reconciliation is the new whole in holistic ministry. It must be if the Christian mission is to remain relevant in our increasingly fractured world This book offers a fresh treatment of holistic ministry that takes the role of reconciliation seriously rethinking the meaning of the gospel the nature of the church and the practice of mission in light of globalization post Christendom and postcolonialism It also includes theological and practical resources for effectively engaging in evangelism compassion and justice and reconciliation ministries Includes a foreword by Ruth Padilla DeBorst and an afterword by Ronald I Sider Answering the Toughest Questions About God and the Bible Bruce Bickel, Stan Jantz, 2016-10-18 Bestselling Authors Tackle Difficult Issues for Believers and Doubters When it comes to the big questions about God Is he real Why are Christians so unlike Jesus Does he really care about me Bruce Bickel and Stan Jantz don t pretend to have all the answers But they do know how to wrestle with doubt They welcome guestions and in these pages they ask some of the most important ones you have about God and the Bible With candor insight and a disarming touch of humor they provide some answers to these critical questions yet they leave enough space and grace for you to keep wrestling asking and seeking Truth There is no shame in asking after all even some of the greatest men and women in the Bible had doubts Don't let your questions go unanswered What you find might just change your life Mentor for Life Natasha Sistrunk Robinson, 2016-03-01 Today's Christian women do not simply want nice fellowships and cookie cutter answers about how to deal with life Though churches are filled with good ministry programming activities outreach events and an endless selection of options many churches neglect their fundamental mission to make disciples Christian women want to mentor and to be mentored though they may not fully understand what that means the significance of this desire or how to get there The church must rise to answer these questions meet life s challenges and develop creative ways of equipping modern women to mentor well In Mentor for Life Natasha Sistrunk Robinson lays a solid foundation for mentoring that is based on God s kingdom vision challenges women to consider the cost of discipleship and the high calling they have received in Christ It shows how to develop mentoring relationships that function communally in existing small groups that are diverse and inclusive It also presents a mentoring framework of knowing and loving God understanding our identity in Christ and loving our neighbor which encourages theological reflection and cultivates a basic Christian worldview Filled with examples from Robinson's experience in the military and business world this resource gives readers the wisdom they need to disciple others and as a foundation for kingdom service Repairing the Missional Breach Kevin Blackwell, 2024-04-02 Making disciples is the primary calling of the church however in the past decades of American evangelicalism there has been a breach of Christ's Great Commission as found in Matt 28 19 20 Much of this failure can be attributed to the doctrine and practice within three modern church movements The book offers a history and critique of modern American evangelical church movements including the Church Growth Emergent Church and Missional Church movements Each of these movements did not result in disciple making multiplication In this book you will find an analysis of disciple making in these movements as compared to the methods and model of Jesus Informed by these critiques formative ministry adjustments are presented as a faithful path for future missional approaches Church Planting in Post-Christian Soil Christopher B. James, 2018 Defying predictions of the inevitable decline of Christianity in the US Church Planting in Post Christian Soil presents the untold story of new churches springing up in Seattle one of the most post Christian cities in the nation In the Fellowship of His Suffering

Elahe Hessamfar, 2015-02-26 Schizophrenia is often considered one of the most destructive forms of mental illness Elahe Hessamfar's personal experience with her daughter's illness has led her to ask some pressing and significant questions about the cause and nature of schizophrenia and the Church's role in its treatment With a candid and revealing look at the history of mental illness In the Fellowship of His Suffering describes schizophrenia as a variation of human expression Hessamfar uses a deeply theological rather than pathological approach to interpret the schizophrenic experience and the effect it has on both the patients and their families Effectively drawing on the Bible as a source of knowledge for understanding mental illness she offers a reflective yet innovative view of whether the Church could or should intervene in such encounters and what such an intervention might look like Hessamfar's comprehensive work will provoke powerful responses from anyone interested in the prominent social issue of mental illness Her portrayal of the raging debate between treating insanity either pastorally or medically will enthral readers be they Christians medical students or those in the field of psychiatry and social sciences Table Matters Felicia Howell LaBoy, 2017-11-09 In many churches the work of evangelism and social justice is relegated to clergy staff or special committees Rarely do most members of the laity believe they should or even want to engage in the tasks of evangelism and social justice In this volume LaBoy contends that participation in baptism and Eucharist mandates for all Christians and those who are Wesleyan in their orientation in particular that evangelism and social justice are not optional but in fact integral to their worship and witness She argues that this understanding and practice of the integration of sacraments evangelism and social justice are what can help churches deal with contemporary issues of decline and church disenfranchisement by both congregants and those beyond church walls LaBov further argues that making the sacraments central to the worship life of congregations is what made early Methodists great evangelists and advocates for social justice Divided Desire Kenny Damara, 2013-12-17 Can your ultimate desire ever be fulfilled Everywhere you look every time you listen with each click and tap there's something you desire How do you know if what you desire will satisfy or if you are seeing a desire mirage The global village presents countless ways to connect to all kinds of information We think we can scarcely live without these connections Do we realize however that these connections often block or slow down connections to God self and others Divided Desire is a journey along the road of desire a road everyone travels Along the journey Kenny Damara explores why we desire what we desire in the global village today What role does The Theology of Dallas Willard Gary God have in fulfilling the ultimate desire of the heart And how should we respond Black Jr., 2013-08-06 Evangelical Christianity in the United States is currently in a dramatic state of change Yet amidst this sometimes tumultuous religious environment a rather unique blend of both ancient and contemporary Christian theology has found its way into the hearts and minds of emerging generations of Christians The Theology of Dallas Willard both describes and conveys the essence of this increasingly popular and perhaps mediating view of the gospel of Jesus Christ Blending both a prophetic critique with pastoral encouragement Willard's unique understanding of the reality present within a life lived as a disciple of Jesus in the kingdom of God is attracting both new and traditional Christians to reconsider their faith Who Art in Heaven? Crystal Joy M.Ed., 2016-11-22 We have all asked ourselves Does anyone care that I am here Do I serve a purpose of value Do I matter at all impressive change to the lives of our neighbors locally and globally by creating innovative forms of social enterprise and community empowerment The even better news is that those of us within the Evangelicalism Practicing the Monastic Disciplines Sam Hamstra, Samuel Cocar, 2021-07-12 In Practicing the Monastic Disciplines authors Sam Hamstra Jr and Samuel Cocar recover the wisdom of the Christian desert and make it more available and accessible to modern Christians especially those in the evangelical circle they inhabit Believing that moderns like themselves often flail in their Christian lives the authors discover in the desert Christians of late antiquity a clear map for growing in Christlikeness as well as an effective set of tools or weapons for combating temptation This set of insights sees its completion in the spiritual theology of Evagrius Ponticus a monastic theologian who expertly assessed the maladies and corresponding remedies of Christian discipleship
