

Essential Question: What makes a character a change throughout a story?

Mini Lesson: Discuss with students how they have changed since they were babies or toddlers. Discuss how they have matured, changed interests and gained independence. Relate this to how characters may change in stories we read. This may be due to maturity/ aging or due to an event or series of events that change a character's outlook or feelings. Sometimes the change is immediate, and other times change chips away at a character. You may choose to challenge students to identify events that have contributed to their own change using the mini lesson skill page.

Word Work: Speed Sort. Have students cut out and shuffle the word work cards. Set a 45 second timer and have students sort words into groups. Discuss the different ways that students grouped the words. You can redo this activity using different lines to challenge students to find new ways to sort the words.

Guided Reading

Read aloud The Raft by Jim Lomarche. While reading, pause to discuss character traits and explicitly cite text evidence. (ex. I know Nicky is brave because he saw a faun in trouble, and saved it.)

*Have students keep a list of traits that you mention out loud as sort of a timeline of reference for the character changing.

During reading questions:

Examine Language: Why do you think Grandma refers to herself as a mermaid? What do you think that could mean?

Cause and effect: What caused them to have hamburgers for supper?

*Complete Guided practice together.
