Quotes On Nursery And Primary Education:

Perspectives in Primary Education NA Borghi, 2013-11-11 PURPOSE OF THE STUDY Primary education in Europe as in the United States and other continents is passing through a period of profound change affecting some of the fundamental educational aims at primary school level and teaching structure content and methods The purpose of this study is to sketch a broad picture of the European educational scene which may be brought about by the impact of innovation in industrialised countries We are only too aware of the difficulties inherent in our task Even when projections and forecasts are firmly rooted in an analysis of existing data they are liable to be contradicted by the facts We shall attempt to allow for those alternative situations which may provide the context for the organisation and functioning of primary education We make no claim to portray the European primary school at the end of the twentieth or at the beginning of the twenty first century We shall do no more than analyse existing achievements and experiments based on research in the associated fields of education psychology and sociology and from this analysis extrapolate a series of forecasts based on objective factors of a social and intellectual nature offering realistic hypotheses for the future Our aim is to provide sound guidelines for those who are to build a better future for our children Perspectives in Primary Education L. Borghi, 2012-12-06 PURPOSE OF THE STUDY Primary education in Europe as in the United States and other continents is passing through a period of profound change affecting some of the fundamental educational aims at primary school level and teaching structure content and methods The purpose of this study is to sketch a broad picture of the European educational scene which may be brought about by the impact of innovation in industrialised countries We are only too aware of the difficulties inherent in our task Even when projections and forecasts are firmly rooted in an analysis of existing data they are liable to be contradicted by the facts We shall attempt to allow for those alternative situations which may provide the context for the organisation and functioning of primary education We make no claim to portray the European primary school at the end of the twentieth or at the beginning of the twenty first century We shall do no more than analyse existing achievements and experiments based on research in the associated fields of education psychology and sociology and from this analysis extrapolate a series of forecasts based on objective factors of a social and intellectual nature offering realistic hypotheses for the future Our aim is to provide sound guidelines for those who are to build a better future for our children The Datafication of Primary and Early Years Education Alice Bradbury, Guy Roberts-Holmes, 2017-10-02 The Datafication of Primary and Early Years Education explores and critically analyses the growing dominance of data in schools and early childhood education settings Recognising the shift in practice and priorities towards the production and analysis of attainment data that are compared locally nationally and internationally this important book explores the role and impact of digital data in the data obsessed school Through insightful case studies the book critiques policy priorities which facilitate and demand the use of attainment data within a neoliberal education system which is already heavily focused on assessment and accountability Using an approach influenced by policy sociology and post foundational frameworks the book considers how data are productive of data driven teacher and child subjectivities The text explores how data have become an important part of making teachers work visible within systems which are both disciplinary and controlling while often reducing the complexity of children s learning to single numbers Key ideas covered include The impact of data on the individual teacher and their pedagogical practice particularly in play based early years classrooms The problems of collecting data through assessment of young children How schools respond to increased pressure to produce the right data or how they play with numbers How data affect children and teachers identities International governance and data comparison including international comparison of young children s attainment Private sector involvement in data processing and analysis The Datafication of Primary and Early Years Education offers a unique insight into the links between data policy and practice and is a crucial read for all interested in the ways in which data are affecting teachers practitioners and children

Toxic Childhood Sue Palmer,2015-02-12 One in six children in the developed world is diagnosed as having developmental or behavioural problems this book explains why and shows what can be done about it Children throughout the developed world are suffering instances of obesity dyslexia ADHD bad behaviour and so on are all on the rise And it s not simply that our willingness to diagnose has increased there are very real and growing problems Sue Palmer a former head teacher and literacy expert has researched a whole range of problem areas from poor diet lack of exercise and sleep deprivation to a range of modern difficulties that are having a major effect television computer games mobile phones This combination of factors added to the increasingly busy and stressed life of parents means that we are developing a toxic new generation TOXIC CHILDHOOD illustrates the latest research from around the world and provides answers for worried parents as to how they can protect their families from the problems of the modern world and help ensure that their children emerge as healthy intelligent and pleasant adults
