Interventions for Mental Well-Being in Youth Silvia Gabrielli, Darko Roviš, Carmel Cefai, 2022-05-26 Numinous

Awareness Is Never Dark, 2016-10-31 Numinous Awareness Is Never Dark examines the issue of whether enlightenment in Zen Buddhism is sudden or gradual that is something intrinsic to the mind that is achieved in a sudden flash of insight or something extrinsic to it that must be developed through a sequential series of practices This sudden gradual issue was one of the crucial debates that helped forge the Zen school in East Asia and the Korean Zen master Chinul s 1158 1210 magnum opus Excerpts offers one of the most thorough treatments of it in all of premodern Buddhist literature According to Chinul s analysis enlightenment is both sudden and gradual Zen practice must begin with a sudden awakening to the numinous awareness the sentience or buddha nature that is inherent in all sentient beings Such an awareness does not need to be developed but must simply be recognized or better re cognized through the unmediated experience of insight Even after this initial awakening however deeply engrained proclivities of thought and conduct may continue to disturb the practitioner these can only be removed gradually as his or her practice matures Chinul s sudden awakening gradual cultivation soteriology became emblematic of the Buddhist tradition in Korea Excerpts translated here in its entirety by the preeminent Western specialist in the Korean Buddhist tradition goes on to examine Chinul s treatments of many of the quintessential practices of Zen Buddhism including nonconceptualization or no thought and the concurrent development of meditation and wisdom as well as for the first time in Korean Zen examining meditative topics kanhwa S n what we in the West know better as k ans after its later Japanese analogues Fitting this new technique into his preferred soteriological schema of sudden awakening gradual cultivation was no simple task for Chinul Numinous Awareness Is Never Dark offers an extensive study of the contours of the sudden gradual debate in Buddhist thought and practice and traces the influence of Chinul s analysis of this issue throughout the history of the Korean tradition Copiously annotated the work contains extensive selections from the two traditional Korean commentaries to the text In Buswell s treatment Chinul s Excerpts emerges as the single most influential work written by a Korean Buddhist author

Contemplating Friendship in Aristotle's Ethics Ann Ward,2016-09-30 In this book Ann Ward explores Aristotle s Nicomachean Ethics focusing on the progressive structure of the argument Aristotle begins by giving an account of moral virtue from the perspective of the moral agent only to find that the account itself highlights fundamental tensions within the virtues that push the moral agent into the realm of intellectual virtue However the existence of an intellectual realm separate from the moral realm can lead to lack of self restraint Aristotle Ward argues locates political philosophy and the experience of friendship as possible solutions to the problem of lack of self restraint since political philosophy thinks about the human things in a universal way and friendship grounds the pursuit of the good which is happiness understood as contemplation Ward concludes that Aristotle s philosophy of friendship points to the embodied intellect of timocratic friends and mothers in their activity of mothering as engaging in the highest form of contemplation and thus living the happiest life
