Radicant Pour Une Esthétique De La Globalisation:

Radicant. Pour une esthétique de la globalisation Nicolas Bourriaud, 2012-04-11T00:00:00+02:00 Que peut nous apprendre l'art sur la globalisation économique En retour comment comprendre les nouvelles formes de l'art contemporain la lumière de cette mutation sociale et intellectuelle Appuyant son analyse sur l'expérience vécue aussi bien que sur les écrits de Victor Segalen ou les aventures artistiques les plus novatrices aujourd'hui Nicolas Bourriaud dresse la cartographie d'un monde en mouvement Entre menace d'uniformisation et tentation du retour aux racines entre multiculturalisme et traditionalisme qui assignent tous deux les individus leur prétendue identité la culture mondialisée est en quête d'une troisième voie qui sorte du postmodernisme pour aller vers l'altermodernité dont ce livre esquisse les figures Un organisme qui fait pousser ses racines au fur et mesure qu'il avance tel est le sens du mot radicalement par lequel Nicolas Bourriaud définit cette modernité émergente s'opposant à la radicalité qui hante le siècle présent

Technology, Literature, and Digital Culture in Latin America Matthew Bush,Tania Gentie,2015-07-16 Grappling with the contemporary Latin American literary climate and its relationship to the pervasive technologies that shape global society this book visits Latin American literature technology and digital culture from the post boom era to the present day The volume examines literature in dialogue with the newest media including videogames blogs electronic literature and social networking sites as well as older forms of technology such as film photography television and music Together the essays interrogate how the global networked subject has affected local political and cultural concerns in Latin America They show that this subject reflects an affective mode of knowledge that can transform the way scholars understand the effects of reading and spectatorship on the production of political communities The collection thus addresses a series of issues crucial to current and future discussions of literature and culture in Latin America how literary visual and digital artists make technology a formal element of their work how technology from photographs to blogs is represented in text and the ramifications of that presence how new media alters the material circulation of culture in Latin America how readership changes in a globalized electronic landscape and how critical approaches to the convergences boundaries and protocols of new media might transform our understanding of the literature and culture produced or received in Latin America today and in the future

German Operetta on Broadway and in the West End, 1900-1940 Derek B. Scott,2019-07-11 Uncovers a world of forgotten triumphs of musical theatre that shine a light on major social topics This book is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Narrating the Slave Trade, Theorizing Community Raphaël Lambert,2018-12-24 In Narrating the Slave Trade Theorizing Community Rapha l Lambert explores the notion of community in conjunction with literary works concerned with the transatlantic slave trade The recent surge of interest in both slave trade and community studies concurs with the return of free market ideology which once justified and facilitated the exponential growth of the slave trade The motif of unbridled capitalism recurs in all the works discussed herein however community whether racial political utopian or conceptual emerges as a fitting frame of reference to reveal unsuspected facets of the relationships between all involved parties and expose the ramifications of the trade across time and space Ultimately this book calls for a complete reevaluation of what it means to live together

Literature, Autonomy and Commitment Aukje van Rooden,2019-06-27 It is often argued that a new form of committed literature is needed Embracing the 18th century Romantic idea of aesthetic autonomy literature is believed to have turned its back to everyday social and political reality One of the central questions occupying contemporary literary debates is therefore whether literary autonomy is essential to modern literature autonomism or should be abandoned anti autonomism Aukje van

Rooden argues that the debate between autonomists and anti autonomists cannot be anything but a fruitless tug of war because it is based on a distorted historical picture In order to make sense of the social relevance of contemporary literature a new theoretical paradigm has to be formulated Literature Autonomy and Commitment not only offers an historical conceptual reconstruction of the Romantic paradigm and the theoretical impasse it has created but also sketches the outline of a new paradigm called the relational paradigm based on the relational ontologies developed in 20th and 21st century philosophy

Contemporary Lusophone African Film Paulo de Medeiros, Livia Apa, 2020-12-13 Offering a range of critical perspectives on a vibrant body of films this collection of essays engages with questions specific to the various cinemas and films addressed while putting forward an argument for their inclusion in current debates on world cinema The collection brings together 11 chapters by recognized scholars who analyze a variety of films and videos from Angola Cape Verde Guin Bissau and Mozambique It also includes an interview with Pedro Pimenta one of the most distinguished African film festival organizers Drawing on various theoretical perspectives the volume strives to reverse the relative invisibility that has afflicted these cinemas arguing that most if not all Lusophone films are transnational in all aspects of production acting and reception The initial three chapters sketch broad comparative overviews and suggest theoretical approaches while the ensuing chapters focus on specific case studies and discuss a number of key issues such as the convergence of film with politics the question of gender and violence as well as the revisiting of the period immediately following independence Attention is given to fiction documentary films and recent short alternative video productions that are overlooked by more traditional channels The book stresses the need to pay attention to the significance of African film and Lusophone African film in particular within the developing field of world cinema Bringing together general overviews historical considerations detailed case studies and focused theoretical reflections this book is a significant volume for students and researchers in film studies especially African Lusophone cultural studies and world cinema

Residentialism Lina Malfona, 2022-06-01 This book tells the story of the making of a community which occurred hand in hand with the building of an archipelago of residences in the countryside north of Rome Lina

Malfona together with Fabio and Simone Petrini designed and built this archipelago of ultra residential villas a place to experience private as well as public life This book tells the story of the making of a community which occurred hand in hand with the building of an archipelago of suburban residences which reaffirm the value of the countryside within a technological and digital society From 2010 onwards Lina Malfona together with Petrini Architects and thanks to the support of the structural engineer Tommaso Malfona has been designing and building this archipelago of villas in the countryside north of Rome which is also where their home studio is located This experimental residence has become a point of reference for the design of an innovative housing typology an ultra residential villa as a place to experience private as well as public life With Contributions of Pippo Ciorra introduction Kenneth Frampton Stanley Allen blurbs Women Writing Intimacy and Resistance Valérie Baisnée-Keay, Corinne Bigot, Nicoleta Alexoe-Zagni, Nathalie Saudo-Welby, Stephanie Genty, 2025-05-27 This collection explores how women writers in the English speaking world transform personal intimacy into political engagement challenging cultural oppression across genres life writing novels poetry and theatre from the 19th century to today Guided by the feminist slogan the personal is political it bridges feminist decolonial ethnic and queer studies revealing how gender based domination intersects with other forms of oppression The authors highlight how these writers across various forms of expression imagine new modes of resistance and carve out space for social change Esthétique du mur géopolitique Elisa Ganivet, 2015-11-18T00:00:00-05:00 Des années après la chute du mur de Berlin une cinquantaine de murs sont toujours rigés dans le monde Transgressant le principe d'universalité d'un monde postmoderne ils cristallisent un malaise qui se doit d'être lucide par l'art L'auteure de cet ouvrage compare trois murs selon leur esthétique développée par les artistes Joseph Beuys Banksy et Frida Kahlo en ne manquant pas d'étudier les contextes enjeux et missions géopolitiques propres chacun Garden and Metaphor Ana Kučan, Mateja Kurir, 2023-10-24 Never before had the garden fulfilled so many demands as it does today It is a refuge from digitalised life and acts as a bridge to nature As a man made place where plants grow it is cultivated and untamable at the same time While for centuries the gardener's ambition was to control and subjugate nature today it serves more as a place for retreat a possible surrogate for wilderness a habitat for animals or it fulfils the dream of self sufficiency In this book landscape architects sociologists architects artists philosophers and historians illuminate different aspects of the garden in the Anthropocene in six chapters the garden as a place of community garden as art garden as a place of enchantment and rapture opening up questions of what garden as a model could stand for The Simple Truth Simon Morley, 2020-12-15 The monochrome a single color work of art is highly ambiguous For some it epitomizes purity and is art reduced to its essence For others it is just a stunt the proverbial emperor's new clothes Why are monochrome works both so admired and such an easy target of scorn Why does a monochrome look so simple and yet is so challenging to comprehend And what is it that drives artists to create such works In this illuminating book Simon Morley unpacks the meanings of the monochrome as it has developed internationally over the twentieth century to today In doing so he also explores how artists have understood what they make how critics variously interpret it and how art is encountered by viewers

Mind and Places Anna Anzani, 2020-05-12 This book explores the contributions of psychological neuroscientific and philosophical perspectives to the design of contemporary cities Pursuing an innovative and multidisciplinary approach it addresses the need to re launch knowledge and creativity as major cultural and institutional bases of human communities Dwelling is a form of knowledge and re invention of reality that involves both the tangible dimension of physical places and their mental representation Findings in the neuroscientific field are increasingly opening stimulating perspectives on the design of spaces and highlight how our ability to understand other people is strongly related to our corporeity The first part of the book focuses on the contributions of various disciplines that deal with the spatial dimension and explores the dovetailing roles that science and art can play from a multidisciplinary perspective In turn the second part formulates proposals on how to promote greater integration between the aesthetic and cultural dimension in spatial design Given its scope the book will benefit all scholars academics and practitioners who are involved in the process of planning designing and building places and will foster an international exchange of research case studies and theoretical reflections to confront the challenges of designing conscious places and enable the development of communities

Almost nothing Anna Dezeuze, 2016-12-21 What does an assemblage made out of crumpled newspaper have in common with an empty room in which the lights go on and off every five seconds This book argues that they are both examples of a precarious art that flourished from the late 1950s to the first decade of the twenty first century in light of a growing awareness of the individual s fragile existence in capitalist society Focusing on comparative case studies drawn from European North and South American practices this study maps out a network of similar concerns and practices while outlining its evolution from the 1960s to the beginning of the twenty first century This book will provide students and amateurs of contemporary art and culture with new insights into contemporary art practices and the critical issues that they raise concerning the material status of the art object the role of the artist in society and the relation between art and everyday life
