Historical Dictionary of Burma (Myanmar) Donald M. Seekins, 2017-03-27 Burma Myanmar is a Southeast Asian country that is emerging from crisis after more than a half century of hard line military rule and cultural diplomatic and economic isolation. With the dissolution of its military regime the State Peace and Development Council in 2011 a formally civilian but military dominated constitutional government was inaugurated. By 2012 Burma's president retired General Thein Sein had established a working relationship with Daw Aung San Suu Kyi the leader of the country's pro democracy movement since 1988 and after a 2012 by election she and members of her opposition party the National League for Democracy NLD entered the new Union Parliament as legislators. However even with the election victory of Daw Suu Kyi and the NLD in the General Election of November 2015 Burma faces daunting challenges it is still one of the poorest countries in Southeast Asia fissured by longstanding ethnic conflicts that have made a nationwide peace agreement elusive and its people's security and the environment are threatened by foreign economic exploitation. Religious discord is also widely evident as Buddhist militants instigate violence against the country's religious minorities especially Muslims. Today Burma's prospects are the most hopeful they have been for over half a century as the country takes steps along the road to a more open society and economy. This edition of the Historical Dictionary of Burma Myanmar encompasses not only current developments but also Burma's over 1 500 years old recorded history and the most important features of its cultures ethnicity religions society and economy. This is done through a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture. Absolute Reconciliation Joseph Wainaina Karanja, 2015-12-11 Can you change your destiny by embracing reconciliation and forgiveness even after surviving a harsh life? That is the dilemma facing young Alex Ngure. Absolute Reconciliation explores the themes of male chauvinism in the African context issues of guilt family breakdowns and difficulties of forgiveness. The ultimate theme of the book is the desire to be reconciled with self others and God. The story is set in 1985 to 1995 in Nairobi Kenya where Alex is born of an incestuous rape relationship. He faces the wrath of his stepfather Macharia who was not privy of his wife's rape. Acting out of ignorance Macharia accuses his wife Rachel of adultery. His stepfather treats Alex as a scapegoat accusing him of all manner of vices as a way of hitting back at his unfaithful wife. Unable to cope with the physical emotional and mental abuse coming from Macharia Alex runs away and ends up on the streets of Nairobi where he is initiated into a gang. Even as Absolute Reconciliation shows the problems arising out of broken homes crime and guilt it still ends on a hopeful note.
