Edgar Villanueva, bestselling author of Decolonizing Wealth. An intersectional approach to personal finance from queer neurodivergent personal finance educator and TikTok star Ellyce Fulmore. There's no magic formula for being good with money. The perfect budgeting spreadsheet or debt repayment plan will never address the root of your money issues. When Ellyce Fulmore started her journey with personal finance, she was drowning in $35K of debt, had 60 to her name, and avoided looking at her bank account. Her own aha moment came when she realized that the reason she and so many others have struggled with finances has little to do with being bad with money. Instead, it has everything to do with how identity and lived experience affect financial behaviors. Now in Keeping Finance Personal, Ellyce offers a shame-free, trauma-aware approach that explores the complex, nuanced, and deeply personal relationship between your identity and your money. With chapters exploring topics such as finding safe spaces, personal values, relationship dynamics, family systems, and culture, it's clear this is not your typical finance book.
