WHEREAS

International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination is marked every year on March 21st. Historically, forty-six years ago on that day the Sharpeville massacre occurred where 69 demonstrators were shot and killed during a non-violent protest against apartheid in South Africa. The United Nations chose this date to draw attention to the continuing fight against all forms of racial discrimination; and

WHEREAS

The elimination of racial discrimination is a major priority in our globally changing world; and

WHEREAS

Individuals and communities have the ability to eliminate racial discrimination.

THEREFORE NOW, I, Melissa Blake, Mayor of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo do hereby proclaim March 21, 2011 as:

"International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination"

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunder set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo in Fort McMurray, Alberta, this 14th day of March, 2011.

Melissa Blake

Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,1992 Finance Fictions Rebecca A. Adelman,2018-11-20 In the United States the early years of the war on terror were marked by the primacy of affects like fear and insecurity These aligned neatly with the state s drive toward intensive securitization and an aggressive foreign policy But for the broader citizenry such affects were tolerable at best and unbearable at worst they were not sustainable Figuring Violence catalogs the affects that define the latter stages of this war and the imaginative work that underpins them These affects apprehension affection admiration gratitude pity and righteous anger are far more subtle and durable than their predecessors rendering them deeply compatible with the ambitions of a state embroiling itself in a perpetual and unwinnable war Surveying the cultural landscape of this sprawling conflict Figuring Violence reveals the varied mechanisms by which these affects have been militarized Rebecca Adelman tracks their convergences around six types of beings civilian children military children military spouses veterans with PTSD and TBI Guant namo detainees and military dogs All of these groups have become preferred objects of sentiment in wartime public culture but they also have in common their status as political subjects who are partially or fully unknowable They become visible to outsiders through a range of mediated and imaginative practices that are ostensibly motivated by concern or compassion However these practices actually function to reduce these beings to abstracted figures silencing their political subjectivities and obscuring their suffering As a result they are erased and rendered hypervisible at once Figuring Violence demonstrates that this dynamic ultimately propagates the very militarism that begets their victimization
