Meredith Chronicles Daniel Heyduk, 2015 Ancient beginnings only hinted at the great things to come in the story of Meredith The earliest residents hunted mammoth and caribou and created the first birch bark canoe to traverse Lake Winnepesaukee and the network of waterways Centuries later Meredith s Dudley Leavitt wrote Leavitt s Farmers Almanack for more than fifty years The local woods were the solitary home of Joseph Plumer who was perhaps New Hampshire s most financially successful hermit Motorcycles cars and horses once raced on the winter ice of Lake Winnepesaukee Together these stories weave the distinctive fabric of Meredith history Dan Heyduk s town history goes beyond documents and dates illustrating the unique character of a multifaceted community

Post-Holocaust France and the Jews, 1945-1955 Seán Hand, Steven T. Katz, 2015-06-12 Despite an outpouring of scholarship on the Holocaust little work has focused on what happened to Europe s Jewish communities after the war ended And unlike many other European nations in which the majority of the Jewish population perished France had a significant post war Jewish community that numbered in the hundreds of thousands Post Holocaust France and the Jews 1945 1955 offers new insight on key aspects of French Jewish life in the decades following the end of World War II How Jews had been treated during the war continued to influence both Jewish and non Jewish society in the post war years The volume examines the ways in which moral and political issues of responsibility combined with the urgent problems and practicalities of restoration and it illustrates how national imperatives international dynamics and a changed self perception all profoundly helped to shape the fortunes of postwar French Judaism Comprehensive and informed this volume offers a rich variety of perspectives on Jewish studies modern and contemporary history literary and cultural analysis philosophy sociology and theology With contributions from leading scholars including Edward Kaplan Susan Rubin Suleiman and Jay Winter the book establishes multiple connections between such different areas of concern as the running of orphanages the establishment of new social and political organisations the restoration of teaching and religious facilities and the development of intellectual responses to the Holocaust Comprehensive and informed this volume will be invaluable to readers working in Jewish studies modern and contemporary history literary and cultural analysis philosophy sociology and theology

Instrument of the State Benjamin J. Harbert,2023 Louisiana State Penitentiary is one of the largest and most brutal maximum security prisons in the United States Built on the grounds of a former plantation the prison is commonly referred to as Angola apropos of the country of origin for many of the enslaved people who inhabited the land Despite notoriously inhumane conditions within the prison people incarcerated at Angola have sustained a rich and dynamic musical legacy since the late nineteenth century attracting folklorists such as John and Alan Lomax and Harry Oster Well known musicians including Huddie William Lead Belly Ledbetter Charles Neville and James Booker played a part in this history in addition to a litany of others who proved vital to the prison s musical culture but for various reasons were unable to establish their careers upon release In Instrument of the State author Benjamin J Harbert interweaves oral history and archival research to show how incarcerated musicians find small but essential freedoms by performing jazz R B country gospel rock and fusion throughout the Twentieth Century In doing so he expands folkloric definitions of prison music considering the ways in which music manifests among the incarcerated and the prison s administration as a lens to better understand state power and the fragments of hope and joy that remain in its wake Instrument of the State acts as an indictment of the carceral state highlighting the many ways in which the US penal system disproportionately affects African American people through desperate profiteering of a deliberately underfunded state agency
