

The following sample essay has been prepared to help answer some of the questions and problems that you may have when writing your first term paper. It includes explanations and illustrations of format, quotations, footnotes and bibliography, using the style set out in the 7th edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, a dissertation secretary at the University of Chicago for 30 years.¹ (For purposes of teaching Turabian Style in this essay, most of the footnoted examples are fabricated.)

For basic information about Turabian Style, it is almost identical to Chicago Style, which is why the both styles are often referred to in combination. An important feature of Turabian style is that references can be placed either in the text of your research paper (parenthetical citing, as in MLA) or as footnotes/endnotes. Whatever style students choose, that style must be used consistently and a bibliography is always included. This use of footnotes and/or endnotes in combination with parenthetical referencing separates Turabian Style from many styles of writing formal papers. (Papers that use Chicago Style typically are more formal papers designed for publication. However, Turabian Style is flexible enough to work with almost any type of paper, including a thesis or dissertation.)

The title (or cover) page is an important page of the essay because it is the first impression that an instructor has of a student's work. Although Turabian Style requires a basic format for the title page, follow the professor's guidelines. However, all information on the title page needs to be accurate. Check for correct spelling and placement of the information that should be included on the title page. The font size and type is 14-pt Times New Roman, as or designated by the professor. Single space the lines on the title page. All words of the title of the
