

Voting and Elections

Three Elementary Principles

1. In the limited franchise, the electorates are voters select people.
2. Universal suffrage includes the fullest citizenship in government.
3. General election the legally established electoral system every individual member of electorate

Three Intermediate Principles

- There are 3 ways a candidate can be proposed by the public:
1. Self-nomination Accepted with funds from the public candidate's public standing electoral member/constituent approves the bid, the self-nominatee proceeds for election 2. The voters Employs a public meeting of local people, the name is presented/declared and later in the state 3. The Committee Formed and announced that the person electable/eligible candidate represents the people's wishes. Every committee has may acknowledge the person. However, official committee can not be set up by the only voters

Definition

- more public is representation of voters Accepted the bid by the voters
- (A minority party) candidate usually required by their party's nominating process
