Seeing Christ In Lamentations God Of Mercy:

Seeing Christ in the Old Testament (part 2) Stephen Kaung, 2009-09-26 The word of God is living and operative Hebrews 4 12a It is living and not just letter because it gives life The Scriptures are operative because they contain not only theological ideas to be pondered but also spiritual realities to be experienced For every scripture is divinely inspired God breathed and profitable for teaching for conviction for correction for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be complete fully fitted to every good work II Timothy 3 16 17 Ye search the scriptures said the Lord Jesus Christ for ye think that in them ye have life eternal and they it is which bear witness concerning me and ye will not come to me that ye might have life John 5 39 40 It behooves us therefore to diligently read the Bible and meditate on it To encourage God's people to study God's word brother Stephen Kaung delivered a series of messages on the sixty six books of the Bible Commencing in 1983 each Lord's day the survey of one book was shared from the New Testament and a similar sharing from the Old Testament commenced in 1986 Each message is merely a panoramic view of each book of the Bible a tasting of the sweetness of God's word The aim is to provide the saints with some basic understanding in their search of God's word These being spoken messages no acknowledgement of the names of the many commentaries consulted is indicated This survey of the Holy Bible will be published as Volume I and Volume II under the overall title of God Has Spoken with Volume I bearing the subtitle Seeing Christ in the Old Testament and consisting of two physical volumes Part One Genesis to Song of Songs and Part Two Isaiah to Malachi and Volume II bearing the subtitle Seeing Christ in the New Testament May God use these volumes to increase our love for His word

Exalting Jesus in Jeremiah, Lamentations Steven Smith, Holman Bible Publishers, 2019-04-01 Exalting Jesus in Jeremiah Lamentations is part of the Christ Centered Exposition Commentary series Edited by David Platt Daniel L Akin and Tony Merida this new commentary series projected to be 48 volumes takes a Christ centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible Rather than a verse by verse approach the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books

Penetrating God's World with the Gospel of Christ Bennie Simmons, 2019-02-20 This book is dealing with subjects that are seldom discussed but are needed for the church to grow in number Discipleship is important but first we must lead the person to Christ with the right message That message is found in the book of Acts The essence of the Gospel was and is today in three parts One is the person of Christ found in the four Gospels Two is the death of Christ again found in the four Gospels And thirdly is the resurrection of Christ Number three being the most neglected part of the Gospel presentation If we follow the messages by Paul and Peter in the book of Acts we will see that all three elements are included We discuss how Satan has tricked and fooled us by his slick presentation as concerning the Gospel of Jesus Christ We teach how one person can lead many to Christ before we stand at the judgement seat of Christ This book will change you

Dark Clouds, Deep Mercy Mark Vroegop, 2019-03-14 Lament is how you live between the poles of a hard life and trusting God's goodness. Lament is how we bring our sorrow to God, but it is a neglected dimension of the Christian life for many Christians today. We need to recover the practice of honest spiritual struggle that gives us permission to vocalize our pain and wrestle with our sorrow. Lament avoids trite answers and quick solutions, progressively moving us toward deeper worship and trust. Exploring how the Bible, through the psalms of lament and the book of Lamentations, gives voice to our pain, this book invites us to grieve, struggle, and tap into the rich reservoir of grace and mercy God offers in the darkest moments of our lives. The Strangest Books in the Bible Jerry Gladson, 2010 The Strangest Books in the Bible presents for the general reader and the Christian pulpit the five biblical books: Song of Solomon, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, and Esther. These books are among the most neglected literature in the Bible for Christians. In the Hebrew Bible, they are gathered in a minor canonical collection known as the Megilloth scrolls because each book figures liturgically in one of the annual Jewish festivals. Readers will find background information, date, occasion, theological message, etc., necessary to preparing sermons based on each book. Brief sermon starters follow, suggesting approaches for preaching on each book as a whole as well as individual passages within the book, including passages found in the Revised Common Lectionary used by more than twenty denominations. The complete text of a sample sermon from the book rounds out the discussion. Chapters close with a brief annotated bibliography of additional resources the minister may wish to consult while preparing a sermon for that book. A general introduction to the Megilloth stands at the beginning of the monograph. The Strangest Books in the Bible is designed particularly for ordained and lay ministers, priests, seminarians, and others who preach in churches and religious gatherings as well as for faculty who teach in seminary or in Christian educational programs. It is also especially informative for the general reader who is interested in this strange biblical literature. The Strangest Books in the Bible assist those who desire to explore in homiletic mode this neglected side of biblical faith. Pastors, priests, seminarians, and lay ministers will find in The Strangest Books in the Bible a surefooted contemporary guide to preaching the neglected books of the Megilloth: Song of Solomon, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, and Esther. No other guide to preaching the Megilloth is currently available. The
