Instructional Practices for Students with Behavioral Disorders J. Ron Nelson, Gregory J. Benner, Paul Mooney, 2013-12-09 Presenting a broad range of instructional programs and practices that are proven effective for students with behavioral disorders this is the first resource of its kind for K 3 teachers and special educators Described are clear cut strategies for promoting mastery and fluency in early reading writing and math while tailoring instruction to each student s needs Grounded in a three tiered response to intervention framework that facilitates data based assessment decision making and progress monitoring the book includes helpful examples and reproducibles A special chapter outlines instructional management procedures for enhancing student engagement and promoting positive behavior Implementing Student-Led Conferences Jane M. Bailey, Thomas R. Guskey, 2001 Students and parents benefit from this powerful communication tool Jane Bailey and Thomas Guskey leaders in the field of student assessment address a nagging issue for both beginning and veteran teachers how to effectively communicate to parents the learning progress of their children Every teacher knows the sinking feeling of facing a sea of anxious parents with limited time for in depth discussion Now there is a way for students to take responsibility in communicating their progress and for parents to get the satisfaction they deserve In this new approach the teacher serves as facilitator as students lead their parents through a discussion of their work An important benefit in this innovation students are required to evaluate and reflect upon their work Highlights of Implementing Student Led Conferences include Overview and philosophy of student led conferences Roles and responsibilities of participants What an effective model looks like How to prepare organize and evaluate for maximum effectiveness Anticipating and handling unique situations The role of student led conferences in authentic assessment and reporting A rich resource section includes everything you need to prepare conduct and evaluate successful student led conferences sample conference announcements and formats portfolio planners reproducible letters parent and student response forms teacher surveys and much more This is an essential resource for teachers and administrators at every school level to maximize time improve communication with parents and encourage student self reliance Student Self-Evaluation: Fostering Reflective Learning Jean MacGregor, 1993 For several decades college teachers have been asking students to engage in self evaluation to reflect on their academic work and describe and evaluate it in writing Student self evaluation is both a process consisting of acts of reflecting composing and writing and a product a written document Student self evaluation does not obviate the need for student exams and papers crucial indicators of student mastery of material or complexity of thinking Rather student self evaluation supplements and complements that information by asking students to describe in their own words their learning and its value to them This writing and the conversations that faculty members and students have about it can be instructional illuminating and at times transformative Student self evaluation is primarily a learning strategy but it is also a promising assessment approach while enriching learning for students it also can help teachers and institutions learn about student learning This volume of New Directions for Teaching and Learning introduces the many forms of student self evaluation in undergraduate teaching settings and describes how student self evaluation creates connections between learners and learning knowers and the known and the self and the mind This is the 56th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Teaching and Learning For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page
