Meek,Ulf Zimmermann,2008-04-21 Initiated and governed by property or business owners under the authorization of state and local governments business improvement districts BIDs have received a very mixed reception To some they are innovative examples of self governance and public private partnerships to others they are yet another example of the movement toward the privatization of what should be inherent government responsibilities Among the first books to present a collection of scholarly work on the subject Business Improvement Districts Research Theories and Controversies brings together renowned leaders in the field to compile the highest quality theoretical legal and empirical studies into one comprehensive volume Investigating fundamental concerns at the core of the debate as well as potential solutions this groundbreaking resource Tackles the need for improved problem solving and efficiency in service delivery Examines new and innovative policy tools for both the public and private sectors Evaluates whether BIDs do ignore the needs and voices of residential property owners Discusses the challenge created by social segregation in cities Addresses lack of accountability by BIDs to the public and elected representatives From different perspectives leading practitioners and academics analyze the pros and cons of BIDs both in the United States and around the world They look at their impact on urban planning and retail revitalization consider their legal implications and explore ways to measure BID performance Filled with case studies of urban centers including San Diego Atlanta New York Toronto and Capetown and state models such as New Jersey and Pennsylvania this examination bring together essential information for researchers as well as those leaders and policy makers looking to adopt a BID model or improve one already in place The Four-Wheeler's Bible Jim Allen,James Weber,2021-06 This thoroughly updated edition of The Four Wheeler s Bible is the ultimate resource for those with a hankering for the sand and mud whether they plan to stick close to home or venture farther afield Torque ,2008-07 Singapore s best homegrown car magazine with an editorial dream team driving it We fuel the need for speed

Lemon-Aid New and Used Cars and Trucks 1990-2016 Phil Edmonston,2015-11-21 This book steers buyers through the the confusion and anxiety of new and used vehicle purchases unlike any other car and truck book on the market Dr Phil Canada s best known automotive expert for more than forty five years pulls no punches Tempo ,2008 Making Choices about Hydrogen Lynn Krieger Mytelka,Grant Boyle,2008 Since the mid 1990s the emergence of a hydrogen economy and the speed with which it will arrive have been vigorously debated As a disruptive technology dominant designs for the production storage and distribution of hydrogen have not yet been established Neither have performance characteristics been achieved to compete with the existing combustion engine though the efficiency and durability of hydrogen fuel cells are improving This publication highlights the uncertainties involved in making choices about hydrogen and fuel cells in planning the development policies on national energy environment and transport sector Publisher s description Organizing Global Technology Flows Pierre-Yves Donzé,Shigehiro Nishimura,2013-11-12 Research on the international transfer of technology in economics and management literature has primarily focused on the role of countries and that of companies in particular multinational enterprises MNEs Similarly economic and business historians have tended to view international technology transfer as a way for economically backward countries to acquire new technologies in order to catch up with more developed economies This volume provides a more in depth understanding of how the international transfer of technologies is organized and in particular challenges the core periphery model that is still dominant in the extant literature By looking beyond national systems of innovation and statistics on foreign trade patent registration and foreign direct investment the book sheds more light on the variety of actors involved in the transfer process including engineers entrepreneurs governments public bodies firms etc and on how they make use of a broad set of national and international institutions facilitating technology transfer Put differently the volume offers a better understanding of the complexity of global technology flows by examining the role and actions of the different actors involved By bringing together a number of original case studies covering many different countries over the period from the late 19th to the 21st century the book demonstrates how technology is being transferred through complex processes involving a variety of actors from several countries using the national and international institutional frameworks
