No Shape Bends The River So Long:

No Shape Bends the River So Long Monica Berlin, Beth Marzoni, 2015-01-06 WINNER OF THE NEW MEASURE POETRY PRIZE Selected by CAROLYN FORCH Free Verse Editions edited by Jon Thompson What to make of this grand experiment over months and miles of river by two poets not one Monica Berlin and Beth Marzoni plus whatever third spirit they've invented together Like music from the 8th century written by Anonymous that haunting ubiquitous voice these poems feel unsettlingly interchangeable keep coming like the country's longest river dream documented here in a rich rush dense with repetition and sorrow by poets who think like a glacier or a stone sand years like consistent rain The Mississippi never had better companions or more devoted ones save Mark Twain perhaps or more to the point his troubled star crossed Huck The sense of human and nonhuman history even prehistory stuns keeps bothering this shared solitary work Wake to any weather know that long ago there also was I'll take that as rare solace MARIANNE BORUCH

No Shape Bends the River So Long Monica Berlin, Beth Marzoni, 2015 They Who Saw the Deep Geraldine Monk, 2016-04-01 At the heart of this collection of poems is the nature of water water as giver and taker of life luxuriant and lethal in equal measures It is set against the backdrop of the shipping forecast and weaves the myths and legends of the ancient Mesopotamians through a litany of migrations down the ages to the present day The Republic of Song Kelvin Corcoran, 2020-04-15 The Republic of Song is a journey to discover the place of that name moving through abhorrence to vision The political chicanery of barely believable figures is excoriated and set against a world where Orpheus holds sway friendship outstares death Nina Simone is happy and Jack Spicer sends us a message about daddy Zeus president In The Republic of Song everything is changed and the lyric states its claim in the face of exile The Republic of Song is also that place where having a drink with a friend in a bar in Brussels can unlock part of the story and prompt the freedom of seeing things for what they are In the conclusive poem The Museum of the Sea the supposedly distant past is alive in the present and deep time is now Odysseus is at sea with the victims of the migrant crisis everything is new and nothing is new

Ghost Letters Baba Badji, 2021-01-01 In Ghost Letters one emigrates to America again and again and again though one also never leaves Senegal the country of one's birth one grows up in America and attends university in America though one also never leaves Senegal the country of one's birth one wrestles with one's American blackness in ways not possible in Senegal though one never leaves Senegal the country of one's birth and one sees more deeply into Americanness than any native born American could Ghost Letters is a 21st century Notebook of a Return to the Native Land though it is a notebook of arrival and being in America It is a major achievement

Shane McCrae Sunshine Wound L. S. Klatt, 2014-11-01 Free Verse Editions Edited by Jon Thompson While the poems in this alert collection rarely depend on specific geography there is a strong sense of somewhere here These poems catch the mind in the process of thinking and plot the subtle constellations that arise from the intersection between the actual and the imaginary Shades and tones and moods are evoked as we might find in the paintings many of these poems reference And yet there are quiet echoes of our real world of human endeavor to provide a sense that something is out of whack as well as the sense there is something vital to hope for This is a deeply satisfying book Maurice Manning Elsewhere, That Small

Monica Berlin,2020-01-25 Sit and stay a while in the strangely familiar rooms and landscapes that Monica Berlin's Elsewhere That Small constructs for us Let Berlin stop the clock just for a few seconds so we can take stock of the ordinary seen here we dwell in the contrary senses of belonging and longing to be elsewhere Berlin's beautifully structured and incisive poems ask us to face and to marvel at the brute force of the world's ongoingness More so Elsewhere That Small offers a lesson on how to region here that is how to accept how to endure EMILY ROSKO The contingency in Elsewhere That Small is embodied by the sonnet form its propensity to turn from abstract to concrete map to memory heavy shaded by green It's in the rhythm of Monica Berlin's language in iambs that sometimes strike in a clear pattern sturdy as a chair back before shifting like some trick of maybe And yet what is contingent in the form is inescapable in the fact of our being human In these poems we occupy spaces patches of ground and perspectives that we may be so bold as to call our own What a gift to be reminded of the view from where we're standing and how fleeting it is when the time comes to turn BETH MCDERMOTT This sequence of poems makes me consider the solitary expanse of the sonnet how the span of fourteen lines opens up a zone through which a thought can travel nimbly its avenues Intimate contemplative seeking out the smallest folds of language Berlin's verse leads us through estrangements and dismantlings whose phrases disclose their beautiful hardness their sharp edges sharper heave of near careless care This book makes palpable a certain kind of nearness an almost an about to rise like orchestral instruments tuning up Reader bring your listening CAROLINA EBEID Fifteen Seconds without Sorrow Shim Bo-Seon,2016-08-01 Like many younger Korean poets SHIM BO SEON writes in an allusive indirect style about topics that are in themselves familiar eating rice taking off clothes living in an apartment block struggling with human relationships He captures some sparkling moments of joys and sorrows hopes and frustrations that have been concealed in daily life in rather modest and witty words The circular movements of concealment and revelation of the mystery that an individual experiences are evoked in turn always lightly As a poet critic Shim fills his lines with the melodies of plain speech with subtle thoughts about relationships in the world Shim made his poetic debut in 1994 but he only published his first collection fourteen years later in 2008 FIFTEEN SECONDS WITHOUT SORROW is a translation of that first volume containing the poet's earliest freshest poems Summoned Guillevic,2015-08-01 The sixteenth of the twenty five major works of Guillevic published by Gallimard since 1942 Summoned Requis represents a pivotal moment in his oeuvre and reaffirms his position as an essential and compelling voice in contemporary poetry A long poem composed of short lapidary verse that the poet calls quanta each in itself a miniature poem Requis distils familiar themes and motifs of the Guillevician universe within an expanded vision encompassing the outer reaches of space Within this poetic hurly burly at once totalising and fragmented arboreal and rhizomatic cadenced and discontinuous expansive and condensed there is a summons to bear witness to the human condition while heeding the injunction of notre toucher De l'illimit that seeks to transgress the boundaries of knowledge to abolish the dichotomies of presence and absence motion and stillness word and silence Bari's Love Song Kang Eun-Gyo, 2019-05-07 In her early career Kang Eun Gyo marked nihilism as the departure of her poetic imagination In response to the turmoil of the world and modern Korean history full of violence and violations of human rights the poet struggled to build her poetry in a house of nothingness With Bari's Love Song Kang Eun Gyo echoes the voice of a sorceress a female shaman who treats the sadness suffering loss and pain of all people From the private losses of the poet to the universal songs of losses and love Bari's Love Song portrays the modern history of Korea in the forms of songs and recollections of Bari the princess from Korean folk literature who walked the land in search of hope The Complete Civil War Road Trip Guide Michael Weeks, 2009-03-24 This tour guide features ten different itineraries that lead visitors through every major campaign site as well as 450 lesser known venues in unlikely places such as Idaho and New Mexico River Flow 2014 Anton J. Schleiss, Giovanni de Cesare, Mario J. Franca, Michael Pfister, 2014-08-12 The behaviour of river systems is a result of the complex interaction between flow sediments morphology and habitats Furthermore rivers are often used as a source of water supply and energy production as well as a waterway for transportation The main challenge faced by river engineers today in collaboration with environmental and ecological scientists is to restore the channelized rivers under the constraints of high urbanization and limited space as well as sustainable water use During the seventh International Conference on Fluvial Hydraulics River Flow 2014 at cole Polytechnique F d rale de Lausanne EPFL Switzerland scientists and professionals from all over the world addressed this challenge and exchanged their knowledge regarding fluvial hydraulics and river morphology This book comprises the proceedings of the high quality contributions of the participants which reflect the state of the art in the fields of river hydrodynamics morphodynamics sediment transport river engineering and restoration The conference was organized under the auspices of the Committee on Fluvial Hydraulics of the International Association for Hydro Environment Engineering and Research IAHR Past River Flow conferences have witnessed a significant increase in participation of our community of river engineers and researchers confirming the need for such a forum Landscape Pattern Language Yuncai Wang, 2022-10-25 This book presents a landscape pattern language framework for describing landscape spaces and offers a new approach to landscape expression and spatial reasoning In addition to describing a conceptual model of landscape pattern language and its inner logical connections the book discusses the functionality of landscape pattern language from both local and universal perspectives effectively demonstrating that it can be used to highlight the individuality and characteristics of landscape space shaping Given its scope the book offers a valuable resource for all graduate students lecturers researchers and practitioners in the areas of landscape architecture landscape planning and regional planning especially ecological planning and design Wonder Rooms Allison Funk, 2015-02-06 The poems in Wonder Rooms this powerful heart breaking elegantly composed collection are like the cabinets within such a room Each is its own intimate interior space where a reader is invited into the unknown Some of these poetic spaces hold natural histories crickets dangerously beautiful corals Proven al snails Others open to the terrors of love and motherhood still others to the chaotic orders of the bestiary This is an amazingly gorgeous and intelligent book a wonder a pleasure and an invitation to inward voyage Jennifer Atkinson The Visible Woman Allison Funk,2021-01-01 In The Visible Woman Allison Funk writes of how women often disappear into the roles expected of them becoming invisible to themselves To fill in the thin chalk outline of herself that she s drawn and erased for as long as she can remember Funk returns to the anatomical model of The Visible Woman she left unassembled as a child With poems rather than the kit s plastic organs and bones she strives to create a likeness to embody herself In her efforts at self representation the poet is guided by the visual artist Louise Bourgeois her real life model of a woman who proved that art gives us a way of recognizing ourselves The Thinking Eye Jennifer Atkinson,2016-01-01 Jennifer Atkinson s The Thinking Eye her fifth collection looks at the syntax of our living evolving world paying close attention to the actual quartz and gnats the goats and iced over onrushing rivers The poems also look at the looking itself how places and lives become landscapes and the ways the lenses of language art ecology myth and memory enlarge and focus our seeing If it s true as Gaston Bachelard says that whether a poet looks through a telescope or a microscope she sees the same thing then what Atkinson sees is an earth filled with violence and beauty human malice and ten thousand separate moments of joy Clearly in love with the earth and the English language all those inter dependent lives and forms Atkinson pays attention to both with a Bishoppy eye a Hopkinsy ear and an ecopoet s conscience Behind the book s sharp images and lush music creaks Chernobyl s rusty Ferris wheel Escape to River's Bend E.S. Burton,2016-09-06 On a sunny July afternoon in the small fishing hamlet of Bayou La Batre Alabama the trawler Bountiful Princess quietly leaves its mooring for a night of shrimping in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico In the wee hours of morning it silently slips back minus its captain Meanwhile some miles away a birthday celebration is in progress Dina Sechrist daughter of the socially prominent Sechrist family has turned twenty one The two episodes although miles apart both physically and socially are strangely connected Its left up to Mobiles Chief Inspector Harold Anjou to find out what has happened to the missing captain As he puts the pieces together the glittering image of the Sechrist family slowly falls away to reveal a hotbed of manipulation and deceit While he delves through the labyrinth of lies and cleverly told facts Mrs Sechrist fights to protect her family from something worse the truth Nostalgia for a World Where We Can Live Monica Berlin,2018-10-11 Monica Berlin s Nostalgia for a World Where We Can Live resides at the turbulent confluence of relentless news cycles and the repeated rending of our interior lives In Berlin s poetry sorrow makes its own landscape solitary intimate forward looking Whether we attempt to traverse it or choose bypass her poems show us where we live how we carry on These poems notice the day in the wind the night tucked up to the train tracks and a slipping in of yesterday memory laden alongside the promise of a more hopeful tomorrow Here is the Midwest vibrant and relic in the ongoing years of collapse and recovery Here the constant companionship of weather lays claim to its own field of vision Here too devastation what's left after Berlin reminds us we are at the mercy of rivers oceans earth wind rain blizzard drought and each other Maybe what I mean to say is that I've come to see all the names we might recognize destruction by Berlin's speaker discovers We might sometimes stupidly call it love On her familiar prairie of lyricism and tumult beauty and ruin Berlin's poems insist plead and seek to reassure In a collection both mournful and urgent both a little book of days and a song this poet meditates on loss wonder and always the consolations of language

Not into the Blossoms and Not into the Air Elizabeth Jacobson, 2019-01-01 Over the past few years Elizabeth Jacobson has become one of my favorite American poets Her work is original deep serious and sensuous in ways that surprise me repeatedly In the way of true inquiry Jacobson's poems unearth genuinely new feelings and knowledge in a clean mature and fully achieved style These poems carry heavy water fetched from deep nature in human hands I love this book TONY HOAGLAND This wild remarkable book begins in painstaking definition via what isn't to strange and dazzling discoveries of the natural world to instinct and melancholia and surprise This poet wanders through a range of poetic architecture an eight sectioned poem which begins with a woman removing her body parts epistolary poems prose poems small strange lyrics of love and bewilderment Genuine curiosity fuels this book and can we bear it a true savoring of the world Elizabeth Jacobson starts in clarity and ends in mystery two points of imaginative departure Beware and rejoice this is how a very original brain thinks itself into poems MARIANNE BORUCH Snakes birds insects and all manner of strange encounters Elizabeth Jacobson is a true observer immersed in the natural world These poems arise out of a deep questioning they are puzzles tangled road maps we can't help but follow It takes some wisdom to abide as Jacobson's work does so effortlessly in paradox I am moved to wonder to breathe and slow down experiencing how as she says the whole world is in me Through her love of the particular a great expanse opens within us These are the poems we need and long for right now ANNE MARIE MACARI Not into the Blossoms and Not into the Air is a collection of poems wealthy with the speaker's intimacy with nature and with the philosophical and spiritual insights that emerge from a deep practice of close observation In a manner that is wonderfully relaxed and conversational Jacobson's poems enter into the most venerable and perennial of our human questions

This History That Just Happened Hannah Craig, 2017-02-01 Hannah Craig's This History That Just Happened places the reader at the nexus where rural and city life converge bridging a world personal and political natural and artful in a voice always uniquely hers Every word here is earned And little if anything escapes this poet's heart mind or eye History works through a keen imagination These poems make us feel and listen differently and images coalesce line by line and dare us to reside where fierce empathy and beauty abide Yusef Komunyakaa
