tried and true method and show you how batch cooking a few basic components can give you an entire week's worth of dinners with minimal time and effort. Have you ever tried a meal prep plan before and gotten so excited about having your cooking for the week done ahead of time only to find yourself totally exhausted after a full day in the kitchen, shocked by your grocery bill and tired of the same leftovers by Tuesday? Cassy Joy Garcia had been there too. As a mom, business owner, and Nutrition Consultant, she needed to get a healthy, affordable, and tasty dinner on the table fast every night, and she knew there had to be a better way to do it. She finally cracked the code when she discovered that by batch cooking a protein, starch, and vegetable each week, she could easily assemble three fresh, diverse meals in minimal time. After years of her readers asking her for better meal prep strategies and easy recipes, she released 4 weeks of recipes on her blog, Fed and Fit. Since then, tens of thousands of people have made and raved about the series and begged for more. In this book, you'll find 26 weeks of affordable, healthy, delicious meals that your family will love eating, and a chapter full of bonus 20-minute meals. Optional Instant Pot and slow cooker instructions are included to get you even more time back in your week. With a Real Food foundation, the weeks in this book aim to support dietary approaches that cover gluten-free, dairy-free, Paleo, low-carb, egg-free, kid-friendly, and more. Three simple ingredients like shredded pork, potatoes, and cabbage are turned into these three easy-to-assemble meals: Honey Mustard Pork Sheet Pan Dinner, Enchiladas Verde Casserole, and Sloppy Joe Stuffed Potatoes. This book is a must-have for anyone looking for a REAL solution to help them eat healthfully while also saving time and money and loving what they are eating.

Southern Living: No Taste Like Home Editors of Southern Living Magazine, 2013-10-08. There's no region of the country more cherished and unique when it comes to food than the South. Southerners celebrate our food traditions. They are totems of our collective identity. Our grits, our fried chicken, our sweet tea, our butterbeans, our biscuits. These are powerful symbols of not just of Southern tastes but also of Southern values of the kind of simple, honest, to goodness, home cooking prepared with generosity of spirit and served up with generosity of ladle. These recipes are what distinguish and bind Southern culture. No Taste Like Home embraces the cultural identity of towns large and small all throughout the South and provides readers with recipes, stories, and highlights of all the unique regional flavors from the Heartland of Dixie to Cajun Country, from The Coastal South to Bluegrass, Bourbon, and BBQ Country, and all points in between. Organized geographically, the cookbook focuses on each of 6 regions in the South. Every chapter will include highlights of specific towns and contain essays describing literally the flavor of the place. The highlighted towns will offer multiple recipes as well as musings from notable locals and locally famous chefs. Just some of the recurring editorial features include a travelogue introduction discussing regional specialties and folklore, Standout recipes from local chefs and almost famous home cooks, Musings from locals about their town, Hometown Flavor features on Southern iconic ingredients that are commonly used in the regional cuisine, What We're Craving features highlighting a local restaurant or town-specific dish that locals crave when they're not at home, Local Know-how features of insider secrets from the locals, from how to pick the
