

Encouragement Letter for a Friend

Dear Ronald,

Lately, I came to know about your bad times you are going through. But I must say one thing for sure that time never remains the same. This bad feeling can easily move with a bit of encouragement that you all need to move ahead and face. Nothing remains constant. A person changes his mood, likewise our time. I still remember my worst time when you have always; been by my side. Always remember I will be always there for you no matter what.

I came to know about your father's demise. It shook me once for a long, and I can understand your feeling right now. However, all you need is good support. I will never step back to support you and be with you. Still, I remember the wonderful memories that we had along with your father. However, none can deprive you of such memories. Those will always remain in your heart and hence your father.

We are very thankful to God, who made your father be part of your life. He had put a good impact on his 68 years in his surroundings. We can never deny how much he loved you from the bottom of his heart. But his love is ever-lasting though he could not give his physical presence among us. I will surely come and meet you as soon as possible once I am free from official work. Let me know if you need any support.

Sincerely,

Sam

Answering the Call William E. Dickens, Jr.,1999-04 This book argues that the standardization of the American military chaplaincy occurred during the Civil War It shows that the chaplains of the North and South provided the model on which the modern chaplaincy is based This model is seen in both the regulations which were established during this war and the actual ministry of the chaplains with the men of their assigned units To accomplish this task the book traces the history of the military chaplaincy from the American Revolution through the American Civil War This analysis relies heavily on official documents and reports as well as personal accounts letters and diaries It also incorporates appropriate secondary source material The Friends' Library William Evans,Thomas Evans,1840 Saints and Feast Days Sisters of Notre Dame of Chardon Ohio,Kathleen Glavich,1985 A collection of suggested activities are provided in this book for various saints on their feast days German Women as Letter Writers, 1750-1850 Lorely French,1996 In working through her letters for publication Arnim stressed a communicative dialogic relationship in which literature history and art coalesce into a highly personal form The final chapter offers an overview of letters that address political concerns Louise Aston Fanny Lewald Emma Herwegh and Mathilde Franziska Anneke all used letters in their publications concerning the 1848 Revolution thereby
