100. Explain the main components of a business to consumer online marketing system. How does Search-engine optimization (SEO), advertising and business relationship marketing?
101. The "Internet" is often described as a marketplace. In contrast, what practices describe the Internet as a not marketplace context, and why? (please bring examples of the Internet as a not market).
102. If only not market-oriented by other organizations is a critical business practice that influences consumers in a different, tangible thing or communication provided by the company which provides a differentiated perspective on value or quality or benefit, it must respond to all other, specifying the not market, tangible thing or communication, otherwise consumers cannot identify the communication, the company and the communication. Shouldn't you define the not market, tangible thing or benefit, otherwise the Internet wouldn't be a communication?
