Wind, James W. Lewis, 1994

The congregation is a distinctly American religious structure and is often overlooked in traditional studies of religion But one cannot understand American religion without understanding the congregation Volume 1 Portraits of Twelve Religious Communities chronicles the founding growth and development of congregations that represent the diverse and complex reality of American local religious cultures The contributors explore multiple issues from the fate of American Protestantism to the rise of charismatic revivalism Volume 2 New Perspectives in the Study of Congregations builds upon those historical studies and addresses three crucial questions Where is the congregation located on the broader map of American cultural and religious life What are congregations distinctive qualities tasks and roles in American culture And what patterns of leadership characterize congregations in America      Annual Report of the American Sunday-School Union ,1874      The Lutheran George Washington Sandt, 1926      The Sunday-school Times ,1887      The Religious Intelligencer ,1824      Wartime Schools Gerard Giordano, 2004

The politically conservative educators of World War II dramatically and rapidly altered policies programs schedules learning materials classroom activities and the content of academic courses They motivated students to salvage materials sell war stamps grow crops learn about wartime issues and take pride in patriotism They prepared millions of people for the armed services and the defense industries These accomplishments were possible because the educators were supported by an unprecedented alliance that included teachers school administrators industrialists military personnel government leaders and the President himself After the war conservative educators continued to portray themselves as home front warriors waging a life threatening battle against enduring global dangers A terrified public accepted this depiction and continued to back them for decades      Luther League Review ,1917      Sierra Educational News ,1924      CTA Journal ,1924      Perspectives ,1980      New Perspectives ,1980      Baptist Commonwealth ,1907      The Congregationalist ,1929
