positions involved in these security and defense requirements they explored and began to show new developments in bilateral security cooperation This book provides a new perspective on Japan ROK security relations and through this lens a broader view of international relations in East Asia It also proves useful in understanding bilateral cooperation in the security field following the normalization of diplomatic relations between the two countries Report of the Federal Security Agency United States. The Law Applicable to Security Interests in Intermediated Securities Under OHADA Law Justin Monsenepwo, 2023-01-03. In recent decades the technical handling of custody business in the OHADA region has undergone a lasting change. There has been a shift from a direct to an indirect holding system in which the interests of an investor in respect of the underlying securities are recorded in the books of an intermediary such as a bank or a securities firm. Under the law of all states within the OHADA region the traditional conflict of laws rule for determining the enforceability of a securities pledge that occurs in the indirect holding system is the lex rei sitae or the lex cartae sitae or the lex situs rule. However the traditional lex rei sitae rule cannot be appropriately applied to a system where the dematerialised securities are held through multiple layers of intermediaries located in different jurisdictions. Yet until the intermediated system and the collateralisation of intermediated securities in the OHADA region will continue to operate in somewhat legally murky waters leading to more instability in the financial markets. Therefore Justin Monsenepwo aims to find an appropriate and consistent approach that reflects the reality of the indirect holding system in the OHADA region.

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault delivered a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that until recently remained almost unknown These lectures which focus on the role of avowal or confession in the determination of truth and justice provide the missing link between Foucault's early work on madness delinquency and sexuality and his later explorations of subjectivity in Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the twentieth century Foucault traces the early use of truth telling in ancient Greece and follows it through to practices of self examination in monastic times By the nineteenth century the avowal of wrongdoing was no longer sufficient to satisfy the call for justice there remained the question of who the criminal was and what formative factors contributed to his wrong doing The call for psychiatric expertise marked the birth of the discipline of psychiatry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as its widespread recognition as the foundation of criminology and modern criminal justice Published here for the first time the 1981 lectures have been superbly translated by Stephen W Sawyer and expertly edited and extensively annotated by Fabienne Brion and Bernard E Harcourt They are accompanied by two contemporaneous interviews with Foucault in which he elaborates on a number of the key themes An essential companion to Discipline and Punish Wrong Doing Truth Telling will take its place as one of the most significant works of Foucault to appear in decades and will be necessary reading for all those interested in his thought
