

A vibrant nighttime street scene in Angeles City, Philippines. The street is illuminated by colorful neon lights, primarily in shades of blue and purple. In the foreground, three women are walking towards the camera. The woman on the left is wearing a black sleeveless top and a black skirt. The woman in the middle is wearing a patterned dress. The woman on the right is wearing an orange crop top and light blue jeans. In the background, there are many other people walking and standing. A sign for "Phillie's SPORTS GRILL" is visible in the upper left, and a sign for "DELIVERY TAKE OUT" is visible in the center. The overall atmosphere is lively and festive.

Women, Insecurity, and Violence in a Post-9/11 World Bronwyn Winter,2017-03-23 September 11 has become a temporal and symbolic marker of the world s brutal entry into the third millennium Nearly all discussions of world politics today include a tacit if not overt reference to that historical moment A decade and a half on Winter considers the impact of 9 11 on women around the world How were women affected by the events of that day Were all women affected in the same way Based on theoretical reflection empirical research and field work in different parts of the world each chapter of the book considers a different post 9 11 issue in relation to women global governance human security globalized militarism identity and sexuality in transnational feminist movements

Consuming Bodies Jackie Hogan,Sarah Whetstone,2024-12-24 Our bodies reveal the values priorities anxieties and material realities of the society in which we are situated and in contemporary consumer societies human bodies both reflect the defining characteristics of our time and carry the markers of social hierarchies based on categories such as gender race and class Consuming Bodies Body Commodification and Embodiment in Late Capitalist Societies explores the ways our bodies are increasingly commodified from before birth to after death through both long standing forms of commodification captive labor sex work and spectator sports and newer forms commercial surrogacy the thriving trade in human biomaterials female genital rejuvenation surgery global romance tourism and green burial practices among others As this diverse range of topics demonstrates body commodification reaches increasingly into every realm of our lives from our most intimate experiences to encounters with pop culture the beauty industries the medical industrial complex and the state This volume takes a critical perspective on body commodification and embodiment both in the US and across the globe making an important contribution to social scientific understandings of the body both by going beyond the Eurocentric approach that typifies much of the extant scholarly literature and by addressing newly emerging practices that are growing out of techno scientific and social changes

Female Sex Trafficking in Asia Vidyamali Samarasinghe, 2012-10-12 Trafficking of women and girls for purposes of sexual exploitation across the globe is widely acknowledged as a leading criminal activity Women of poor countries are particularly vulnerable to sex trafficking This book identifies the patterns causes and consequences of female sex trafficking in Nepal Cambodia and the Philippines Using empirical evidence this book illustrates the commonalities and the differences among the different countries and recommends that serious attention should be paid to location specific dimensions of sex trafficking in designing anti sex trafficking strategies

The Idea of Prostitution Sheila Jeffreys, 1997 There are at least two competing views on prostitution prostitution as a legitimate and acceptable form of employment freely chosen by women and men s use of prostitution as a form of degrading the women and causing grave psychological damage In The Idea of Prostitution Sheila Jeffreys explores these sharply contrasting views

Not for Sale Rebecca Whisnant, Christine Stark, 2004 Prostitution and pornography are linked with racism and male dominance as well as with imperialism militarism including torture and global corporate culture The result is devastating harm for women and children within these industries Subjected to physical and psychological violence poverty drug addiction and homelessness are their usual companions With its mix of personal stories theory research testimony and accounts of current activism Not For Sale will be an invaluable resource for all those seeking to inform themselves about the realities of the sex business and will serve to strengthen and broaden feminist resistance to pornography and prostitution

Dangerous Intercourse Tessa Winkelmann, 2023-01-15 In Dangerous Intercourse Tessa Winkelmann examines interracial social and sexual contact between Americans and Filipinos in the early twentieth century via a wide range of relationships from the casual and economic to the formal and long term Winkelmann argues that such intercourse was foundational not only to the colonization of the Philippines but also to the longer uneven history between the two nations Although some relationships between Filipinos and Americans served as demonstrations of US benevolence too close sexual relations also threatened social hierarchies and the so called civilizing mission For the Filipino Indigenous Moro

Chinese and other local populations intercourse offered opportunities to negotiate and challenge empire though these opportunities often came at a high cost for those most vulnerable Drawing on a multilingual array of primary sources Dangerous Intercourse highlights that sexual relationships enabled US authorities to police white and nonwhite bodies alike define racial and national boundaries and solidify colonial rule throughout the archipelago The dangerous ideas about sexuality and Filipina women created and shaped by US imperialists of the early twentieth century remain at the core of contemporary American notions of the island nation and indeed of Asian and Asian American women more generally The Johns Victor Malarek,2011-08-01 Each year more than 800 000 women and children are lured tricked or forced into prostitution to meet an apparently insatiable demand joining an estimated 10 million women already ensnared in the 20 billion worldwide sex trade To date most research on the subject has focused on the various issues that propel these women into the trade but little has been investigated or written about those who trigger the demand the Johns In this hard hitting expose Victor Malarek ranges worldwide unmasking the kind of men and organizations that foster and drive the sex trade from America to Europe Brazil to Thailand Phnom Penh to St Petersburg and Costa Rica From socioeconomic background to emotional stability Malarek investigates the root of the cause and attacks the idea that prostitution is a victimless crime He explores the efficacy of Sweden s outlawing the buying rather than the selling of sex and its dramatic impact on the country s prostitution rates The Johns is a chilling look into a dark corner of the world that these men have created at the expense of countless women and children AIDS Failure Philippines? Earl K.
