A Compensatory Gift of Unyielding Sturdiness Michael A. Connelly, 2015-01-23 Ronnie Leigh is born with a disfigured face and a questionable gift of unusual intuition inherited from his mother He gets off to a rocky start in life with behavioral and personality problems compounded in that he knows from an early age that most people are immediately put off by his appearance and that some even dislike him on sight With the help of his understanding and loving parents and a caring child psychologist Ronnie learns to appreciate what he does have and not dwell on what he does not. What he has innately are intelligence and athletic ability and what he learns through early adversity are persistence, perspective, the value of hard work in the classroom and on the baseball field, and for him especially the healing, calming and strengthening power of vigorous exercise beyond what most people are capable of. Ronnie struggles to make close friends even as he strives to advance as a pitcher in the Boston Red Sox minor league system. Meanwhile he has a good heart, extraordinary fighting skills, and that gift/curse of special intuition, the combination of which forces him to make some difficult decisions and eventually to undertake some dangerous and extreme but ultimately necessary actions.

The Heart Stealer Katy Archer, He's a hockey star with no strings attached and a life any other college student would be jealous of, but when he meets a girl with big green eyes and tears on her face, he's a goner. When I open the door to our hockey frat house late one night and find a distraught woman shivering on the doorstep, every protective instinct inside me rises to the challenge. I'll do anything to help her and wipe that terrified look off her face. It doesn't matter that I've never seen her before and I don't know anything about her or even what happened. That's the kind of guy I am. I'm the protector, the defenseman, the one who makes sure everyone is all right on the ice and off it. But the more time I spend with her, the more I'm intrigued by her quiet smile and her unflinching grit. She's got more backbone and quicker defense reflexes than most hockey goalies I know. She's also keeping the truth locked down so tight I still don't know exactly what happened to her that night, but the way she flinches at loud noises and the fear that flashes through her eyes tells me enough. Someone hurt her. And for some reason, the thought of that is more than I can handle. I'm determined to find out who did this to her and then I'm going to make sure they'll never be able to hurt her again. I've never felt like this before about a girl. I want to protect her, to keep her safe. But I also want to make her mine.

The Heart Stealer is a stand-alone, slow-burn NA hockey romance with no cheating and a guaranteed happy ending. Perfect for fans of Off Campus by Elle Kennedy, Nerd by Cambria Hebert, and Maple Hills by Hannah Grace Trigger. Warning: Domestic violence.
