Shadow Country Peter Matthiessen, 2008-08-19 NATIONAL BOOK AWARD WINNER Altogether gripping shocking and brilliantly told not just a tour de force in its stylistic range but a great American novel as powerful a reading experience as nearly any in our literature Michael Dirda The New York Review of Books Killing Mister Watson Lost Man s River and Bone by Bone Peter Matthiessen s great American epic about Everglades sugar planter and notorious outlaw E J Watson on the wild Florida frontier at the turn of the twentieth century were originally conceived as one vast mysterious novel Now in this bold new rendering Matthiessen has marvelously distilled a monumental work while deepening the insights and motivations of his characters with brilliant rewriting throughout Praise for Shadow Country Magnificent breathtaking Finally now we have this three part saga welded like a bell and with Watson s song the last sound all the elements fuse and resonate Los Angeles Times Peter Matthiessen has done great things with the Watson trilogy It s the story of our continent both land and people and his writing does every justice to the blood fury of his themes Don DeLillo The fiction of Peter Ma tthiessen is the reason a lot of people in my generation decided to be writers No doubt about it Shadow Country lives up to anyone s highest expectations for great writing Richard Ford Shadow Country Matthiessen s distillation of the earlier Watson saga represents his original vision It is the quintessence of his lifelong concerns and a great legacy W S Merwin An epic masterpiece a great American novel The Miami Herald The Shadowed Country Josh Gosciak, 2006-01-31 One of the most important voices of the Harlem Renaissance Claude McKay is largely recognized for his work during the 1920s which includes a major collection of poems Harlem Shadows as well as a critically acclaimed novel Home to Harlem But McKay was never completely comfortable with his literary reputation during this period Throughout his world travels he saw himself as an English lyricist In this compelling examination of the life and works of this complex poet novelist journalist and short story writer Josh Gosciak sheds light on McKay s literary contributions beyond his interactions with Harlem Renaissance artists and writers Working within English literary traditions McKay crafted a verse out of hybridity and diaspora Gosciak shows how he reinvigorated a modern pastoral through his encounters with some of the major aesthetic and political movements of the late Victorian and early modern periods Exploring new archival material as well as many of McKay s lesser known poetic works The Shadowed Country provides a unique interpretation of the writings of this major author Florida Studies Paul D. Reich, 2012-11-30 This volume contains a variety of essays about Florida literature and history by scholars from across the state representing every kind of institution of higher learning from community colleges to small liberal arts institutions to large universities The essays in the first section Pedagogy focus on the college classroom and the challenges facing institutions of higher learning in Florida The essays in Old Florida explore a number of writers including Zora Neale Hurston Jack Kerouac and Williams S Burroughs who at various points in their careers called Florida home The final section Contemporary Florida continues to identify the state s place within larger literary cultural and political traditions The

Shadows Zabus,2021-08-10 To apply for asylum Refugee 214 must tell his story With him in the room are a man from his new country and the shadows of four loved ones who did not survive the journey 214 reveals how he and his younger sister fled their homes and set off toward the border how they met and suffered with friends and lost them and how the plight of the refugee is an experience that erases differences between individuals even as it threatens to erase the individuals themselves The only one left to tell the tale 214 swallows his fears and relates what he and the shadows saw and did in the hope that his life and the lives of the others won't have been in vain Creators Zabus Hippolyte present an intimate and heartrending look at one fictional refugee's story while encompassing the larger plight of displaced people French North America in the Shadows of Conquest Ryan André Brasseaux,2020-12-29 French North America in the Shadows of Conquest is an interdisciplinary postcolonial and continental history of Francophone North America across the long twentieth century revealing hidden histories that so deeply shaped the course of North America Modern French North America was born from the process of coming to terms with the idea of conquest after the fall of New France The memory of conquest still haunts those 20 million Francophones who call North America home The book re-examines the contours of North American history by emphasizing alliances between Acadians Cajuns and Québécois and French Canadians in their attempt to present a unified challenge against the threat of assimilation linguistic extinction and Anglophone hegemony It explores cultural trauma narratives and the social networks Francophones constructed and shows how North American history looks radically different from their perspective This book presents a missing chapter in the annals of linguistic and ethnic differences on a continent defined in part by its histories of dispossession It will be of interest to scholars and students of American and Canadian history particularly those interested in French North America as well as ethnic and cultural studies comparative history the American South and migration Guiana and the Shadows of Empire Joshua R. Hyles,2013-12-04 This book is a history of the three Guianas now known as Guyana Suriname and French Guiana Though histories of each of the countries exist this is the first work in a century to consider the three countries as a group and thus the first to present the history of all three as a comparative and overarching study Special emphasis has been given to the story of how each colony was administered by Britain the Netherlands and France respectively and how these differing colonial administrative policies have given rise to three vastly different cultures Because the geographical area of the Guianas is relatively small the indigenous population at the time of contact was relatively uniform across the area and the external pressures on the three colonies over their histories exhibited significant similarities the book presents the Guianas as an ideal laboratory in which to study the effects of imperialism and cultural assimilation practices The book also briefly considers the present political and cultural status of the three polities and makes some projections about their possible futures In all the book presents a complete history from prehistory until the present day covering the entirety of the Guianas region relating a colorful history from a little studied corner of the world Lights and Shadows in a Hospital Alice Terton,1902 Kim Stanley Robinson

Andrew Rowcroft, 2024-05-03 Kim Stanley Robinson remains one of the most progressive writers working today His novels and short stories have mapped cycles of capitalist violence economic expansion and material despoliation in turn proposing radical visions of social and economic justice through cooperatives collective agreements and stewardship of the environment But if Robinson is readily considered a political author less attention has been paid to his craft and composition This book examines Robinson's concern with literary apprenticeship In novels such as the post apocalyptic The Wild Shore the intergenerational star ship narrative Aurora and the tale of Ice Age hunters Shaman Robinson creates characters who struggle with and against storytelling In these fictions apprentices battle against the limits of their interpretative powers as they come to recognise the real pleasures and the intense hardships of art and narrative

Deepdene Minster; Or, Shadows and Sunshine Cecilia MacGregor, 1865 The New Age of Adventure Sebastian Junger, 2009 These stories rocket readers across the roof of the world on the new high speed railway in Tibet describe the tension between Indian farmers and the sacred elephants besieging their villages and introduce them to a shaman whom some believe can cure the most serious depressions

The Search for a Woman-centered Spirituality Annette J. Van Dyke, 1992-07 Examining the work and writings of such figures as Leslie Marmon Silko Paula Gunn Allen Audre Lorde Alice Walker Starhawk Marion Zimmer Bradley Sonia Johnson and Mary Daly the author illustrates how these writers and activists outline a journey toward wholeness
