See Dave Run:

See Dave Run Jeannette Eyerly, 1978-01-01 Running away from an intolerable home situation a 15 year old boy finds that he has nowhere to go and no one to turn to Some Came Running James Jones, 2014-11-04 James Jones's saga of life in the American Midwest newly revised five decades after it was first published and including a new foreword by his daughter Kaylie Jones After the blockbuster international success of From Here to Eternity James Jones retreated from public life making his home at the Handy Writers Colony in Illinois His goal was to write something larger than a war novel and the result six years in the making was Some Came Running a stirring portrait of small town life in the American Midwest at a time when our country and its people were striving to find their place in the new postwar world Five decades later it has been revised and reedited under the direction of the Jones estate to allow for a leaner tighter read The result is the masterpiece Jones intended a tale whose brutal honesty is as shocking now as on the day it was first published This ebook features an illustrated biography of James Jones including rare photos from the author's estate See Dave Run Jeannette Eyerly, 1986-03-01 Running away from an intolerable home situation a 15 year old boy finds that he has nowhere to go and no one to turn to Dave Porter and His Double; Or, The Disappearance of the Basswood Fortune Edward Stratemeyer, 2023-10-04 In Edward Stratemeyer's book Dave Porter and His Double Or The Disappearance of the Basswood Fortune readers are taken on a thrilling journey filled with mystery and adventure Written in the style of early 20th century juvenile fiction this book follows the protagonist Dave Porter as he embarks on a quest to uncover the truth behind a mysterious disappearance With its engaging plot and vivid descriptions this book showcases Stratemeyer's talent for storytelling within the context of a classic adventure tale Readers will be captivated by the twists and turns of the narrative making it a compelling read for fans of historical fiction and mystery novels Edward Stratemeyer known for creating popular book series such as the Hardy Boys and Nancy Drew brings his expertise in crafting entertaining and suspenseful stories to Dave Porter and His Double Drawing from his experience in writing juvenile fiction Stratemeyer delivers a tale that is sure to captivate readers of all ages I highly recommend this book to anyone looking for an exciting and well written adventure story that will keep them on the edge of their seat from beginning to end Dave Porter and His Double Edward Stratemeyer, 1916 Dave Porter receives a bill for shoes he did not buy Soon he learns that someone impersonating Dave and buying at many shops without paying the bills A call from a banker friend alerts Dave that the culprit is nearby and Dave nearly captures him but the look alike gets away Dave's friends the Basswoods discover a legacy in miniature oil paintings Then suddenly the paintings disappear along with the swindler Bernie Fineman - Original Motor Mouth Bernie Fineman, 2015-06-04 After being expelled from one school too many Bernie Fineman got a job in a garage when he was thirteen years old On his first day he hit the foreman across the face with a broom handle Fifty years later he's still working in garages and still has a fiery temper as anyone who has tried to cheat a customer or seen one of his many series for

Discovery UK and Channel 5 will testify Not for nothing is Bernie called the Original Motor Mouth Growing up in the post war East End with a welder for a mother and a bear knuckle fighter for a father life was tough in every sense But as well as toughness Bernie also inherited a determination and willingness to graft from his parents and despite leaving school with no qualifications Bernie has risen to become one of the most respected and famous mechanics in the UK This is the remarkable story of fifty years in the motor trade that has seen Bernie go from Kray Twins fixer to becoming indispensable to the Metropolitan Police via South Africa Bangladesh the jungles of Central America and more Dodgy motors and dodgy characters abound in this rollicking and unlikely ride

100 Marathons Jeffrey Horowitz, 2013-10-01 I d always been the kind of person who hated half steps once I found a passion for something I wanted to dive into the deep end of it Jeffrey has run over 150 marathons in six continents completing more than 3 930 miles This book tells the story of the one hundred races in his first eighteen years of marathoning his training injuries triumphs and failures He admits that runners are a little bit crazy submitting themselves to intense physical pain and constant self doubt but explains the rewards of satisfaction and joy at the end of a long race that are well worth the process He also includes running tips on everything from strength training to race recovery for those who want to start or are already running This memoir is not just for runners but for anyone who appreciates any grueling experience that transforms the body and mind It captures the sheer joy of physical exertion the ups and downs of training and the exhilaration of finishing a marathon so well everyone will be inspired to lace up their running shoes

Chicken Soup with Barley Arnold Wesker, 2011-06-02 The kettle boils in 1936 as the fascists are marching Tea is brewed in 1946 with disillusion in the air at the end of the war Twenty years on in 1956 as rumours spread of Hungarian revolution the cup is empty Sarah Khan an East End Jewish mother is a feisty political fighter and a staunch communist Battling against the State and her shirking husband she desperately tries to keep her family together This landmark state of the nation play is a panoramic drama portraying the age old battle between realism and idealism Chicken Soup with Barley captures the collapse of an ideology alongside the disintegration of a family Chicken Soup with Barley the first in a trilogy that includes Roots and I m Talking about Jerusalem was first performed at the Belgrade Theatre Coventry in 1958 and transferred to the Royal Court in the same year

Life After the Line Josie Kearns, 1990 As one sixty year old thirty and out auto worker said My people came from Scotland and they worked in the mines and we thought black lung was the worst We came over here for a better life and work in the factories and now GM closes them down the same way This is just one of the quotes Josie Kearns shares in her stories of thirty laid off auto workers and their families While some of the stories are heart wrenching the volume is not one of gloom and despair Like Studs Terkel and his Working Kearns gives special attention to he workers aspirations philosophies and humor For those who went through retraining programs or put their entrepreneurial spirit to work after their layoffs Kearns discovers unlikely success stories and describes the dramatic changes workers realized upon entering new fields or becoming their own bosses She precedes each interview with a brief

biographical sketch and also looks at the effects of retirement and retraining on the former auto workers Running Times, 2007-10 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes coaches and scientists rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner s worldview The Mule-Bone Langston Hughes,Zora Neale Hurston,2023-07-19T19:34:05Z The only collaboration between Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston The Mule Bone is a three act comedy depicting the romantic rivalry between two lifelong friends Jim Weston and Dave Carter as they both try to woo the same woman Daisy Taylor Set in the town of Eatonville Florida Zora Neale Hurston s hometown and the setting of her novel Their Eyes Were Watching God the play humorously explores the interpersonal and religious conflicts in an early 20th century African American community while incorporating themes from folklore Hughes and Hurston s collaboration on The Mule Bone was a troubled one since it ended in an authorship dispute between the two and the play was never properly finished Hughes even noted on his personal copy This play was never done because the authors fell out The play was not produced until 1991 over sixty years after it was written when it was performed at the Ethel Barrymore Theatre to lukewarm reviews This Standard Ebooks edition is based on the manuscript deposited by Zora Neale Hurston with the United States Copyright Office in 1931 the only version of The Mule Bone known to be out of copyright This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks Running Encyclopedia Richard Benyo,Joe Henderson,2002 An A to Z resource on running including history key figures major events and primary training theories and terms (Na)Tasha Preethi Basker, Meet Tasha Purvis formally known as Natasha Purvis a 21 year old mother of 1 studying to be a veterinarian She lives with her childhood best friend Rosanna Clinton and her daughter Daisyntha Purvis in a house Dave a friend she looks up to as an elder brother helped her secure Although all seems well and dandy it is soon revealed Tasha is running away from a dark past What is it What happens when her past catches up to her Would she be able to fight back or would she run away again Find out in Na Tasha

My head throbbed and the floor below me was ice cold I let out a whimper as I slowly opened my eyes The room I was in was pitch black Where was I DAISY Where s daisy I tried to move but realized soon that my hands were tied behind my back My legs were tied together too With all my strength I sat up Feeling a wall behind me I leaned back a little my upper back and shoulders touching the wall Resting my head against the wall I thought long and hard trying to remember what happened last and how I ended up here That was how she ended up when Tasha tried to run from her past She instead got swallowed by them How did she end up in this very situation Locked up on a cold floor with no way to escape How was she going to get out Having feared fighting and confrontation would she be able to fight the demons off With time ticking away would she be able to save her daughter in time before she gets shipped to some place unknown

Rumble Seat Adventures in the Mountains Stan Harris,2014-05-04 This book is the continuation of the original Rumble Seat Adventures that was written in 1977 The original Rumble Seat Adventures covered the years 1930 to 1934 near Crane

Texas In Rumble Seat Adventures In the Mountains the Harris family has moved from the Gulf camp outside of Crane to the Gulf camp outside of Iraan Rumble Seat Adventures In the Mountains covers the years 1934 to 1938 near Iraan Texas In 1934 Stan is 10 years old and he is ready to explore We hope you enjoy the additional adventures of Stan and his friends as they have adventures near their West Texas home See Dave Run-CC , Seeking Shade Frances Boyle,2020-07-15 In Seeking Shade ordinary situations are imbued with extraordinary emotion as women and men explore identity and independence navigate complicated relationships and confront the fallibility of mind and body A reckless young woman dances through the Second World War and through the lives of many a man in uniform A graduate student considers a popular film and revisits a past tragedy as she watches flames devour her apartment building A hardworking man struggles to come to grips with his own helplessness at three stages of enforced quietude A wife and mother questions her health and her sanity when she is plagued by phantom pains and visions of ghostly twins Through these and other stories Frances Boyle leaves readers with a retinal impression a shadow left by a flash reminding us that the ways we communicate through art through literature through dance through performances theatrical and otherwise shape our lives and the stories that we tell

Ballou's Monthly Magazine ,1871 The Running Evolution Tom Bernard,2013-12 Turning twenty nine was not catastrophic for me I had heard about people having midlife crises even known some people who were either having one or just using it as an excuse for their behavior But for me I had only one concern a good set of orders Graduating from the Coast Guard Academy had obligated me to serve five years in the Coast Guard My first four years were served in vessels Two on a high endurance cutter mostly in a training or learning mode and two as commanding officer of a small patrol vessel stationed on North Carolina s southern coast Despite being prone to seasickness I loved the lure of the sea While I did miss my wife and now two children getting under way has always been a wonderful experience where anything could happen and often did Following those four years afloat I was assigned to be chief of recruitment for Northern California Nevada and Utah and was now nearing the end of a three year assignment ashore Three years ashore was about three years too many and I was eager to get back to sea It had been a good and challenging three years living in fairly typical urban style carpooling into the big city during the week and catching up on home duties during the weekend Somehow riding a desk even a nice desk did not compare to life on a ship The Coast Guard did provide us some input to the assignment process so after some thought I decided to be bold on my assignment request and ask for a buoy tender in Hawaii as executive officer I had no buoy tender or overseas experience but our assignment card was commonly referred to as a wish sheet so I figured I d wish Executive officers were second in command on the ship generally managing all the administrative aspects and running the day to day routine of the ship Once under way the commanding officer became the man often referred to as the Old Man On a small patrol vessel such as I had previously commanded there was only one officer so I had handled all the administrative aspects as well as the operational aspects I would only need to learn the art of tending buoys if I was fortunate enough to get the assignment I don't think it influenced my choice but one of my long distance childhood memories was a postcard my father received one day from a friend I was only about eight or nine but I remember the words and the picture which is what really caught my attention palm trees white sand beaches and crystal blue water Keep in mind that there were no high definition big screen TVs in that day and few color TVs none in our house so a color postcard made quite an impression The words also made an impression and burned themselves into my memory Sell the boat Sell the house Quit your job Move to paradise Hawaii If it had mentioned leaving the eight kids behind my father might have jumped at the idea but he was afraid to fly so we were not moving to Hawaii at least not then Lo and behold twenty years later I receive my first choice and I was going to Hawaii I didn't need to sell anything and was perfectly happy to bring my wife and young children For some reason the Coast Guard thought that after three years ashore I might have forgotten all those semesters of navigation plus the subsequent four years I spent on ships practicing So they sent me to a refresher course for two weeks in San Diego Turns out I hadn't forgotten and even if I had it didn't matter The only two things an executive officer needed to know in that era were how to balance the budget and how to catch the young seamen smoking pot They didn't have courses for those things and I didn't need them anyway I was pretty good at both But who can complain about two weeks in San Diego Most of my classmates were naval officers of various ranks and levels of experience As a Coastie I was never much impressed but enjoyed listening to the break discussions One particular discussion during t

No Place to Die Clare Donoghue, 2015-06-09 Jane Bennett senior Detective Sergeant for the murder squad at her London police precinct is having a terrible day Her boss Detective Inspector Mike Lockyer has just returned to work after two weeks on leave though Jane knows it was really more like a suspension He's still shaken by the loss of a victim in their last murder case and Jane is still stung that Lockyer didn't trust her enough to confide in her about the case before it was too late But neither of them has the luxury of time to dwell on past grievances Jane has just received a phone call from a good friend saying that her husband Mark Leech a retired policeman has disappeared When Jane finds dramatic blood splatters in the laundry room she knows Mark is seriously injured at best and they don't have any time to waste And then the body of a young girl is discovered in a tomb under a London greenway and police resources are stretched even thinner until it starts to look like the two cases might be related No Place to Die is another spine tingling mystery with complex three dimensional characters from suspense master Clare Donoghue
