Boozehound Jason Wilson,2010-09-21 While some may wonder Does the world really need another flavored vodka no one answers this question quite so memorably as spirits writer and raconteur Jason Wilson does in Boozehound By the way the short answer is no A unique blend of travelogue spirits history and recipe collection Boozehound explores the origins of what we drink and the often surprising reasons behind our choices In lieu of odorless colorless tasteless spirits Wilson champions Old World liquors with hard to define flavors a bitter and complex Italian amari or the ancient aromatic herbs of Chartreuse as well as distinctive New World offerings like lively Peruvian pisco With an eye for adventure Wilson seeks out visceral experiences at the source of production visiting fields of spiky agave in Jalisco entering the heavily and reverently guarded J germeister herb room in Wolfenb ttel and journeying to the French Alps to determine if mustachioed men in berets really handpick blossoms to make elderflower liqueur In addition Boozehound offers more than fifty drink recipes from three riffs on the Manhattan to cocktail geek favorites like the Aviation and the Last Word These recipes are presented alongside a host of opinionated essays that cherish the rare uncover the obscure dethrone the overrated and unravel the mysteries of taste trends and terroir Through his far flung intrepid traveling and tasting Wilson shows us that perhaps nothing else as entwined with the history of human culture is quite as much fun as booze Behind Bars Ty Wenzel,2004-12-02 A woman bartender recounts how her temporary withdrawal from corporate America turned into a ten year position at a New York restaurant during which she learned insider secrets and encountered a host of celebrities

Wine to Water Doc Hendley,2012-01-05 The captivating story of an ordinary bartender who s changing the world through clean water Doc Hendley never set out to be a hero In 2004 Hendley a small town bartender launched a series of wine tasting events to raise funds for clean water projects and to bring awareness to the world s freshwater crisis He planned to donate the proceeds through traditional channels but instead found himself traveling to one of the world s most dangerous hot spots Darfur Sudan There Doc witnessed a government sponsored genocide where the number one weapon wasn't bullets it was water The Janjaweed terrorists had figured out that shooting up a bladder containing 10 000 liters of water or dumping rotting corpses into a primary water source is remarkably efficient for the purposes of mass extermination With limited funds Doc realized that he couldn't build new wells costing 10 000 a pop but he could hire local workers to restore a damaged well for a mere 50 each He'd found his mission Today Doc and Wine to Water continue to help stricken peoples repair and maintain water containment systems in places like Darfur Cambodia Uganda and Haiti Doc is a regular rough and tumble guy who loves booze music and his Harley but he also wanted to help Wine to Water is a gripping story about braving tribal warfare and natural disasters and encountering fascinating characters in far flung regions of the world It is also an authoritative account of a global crisis and an inspirational tale that proves how ordinary people can improve the world
