Now That the Dust Has Settled Athanasio Dzagagu,2015-03-26 In this book I try to explore why one section of the Catholic Community connected with the late Archbishop Chakaipa was overtaken by great remorse when he died while another went into jubilation This leads me into the examination of what kind of person Archbishop Chakaipa was I do this in the context of his family background and his priestly and Episcopal ministries He was of the Unendoro clan with a history tracing back to Karanga roots In his Seminary years he wrote five Shona novels which became very influential in developing Shona literacy He earned enduring respect across the entire Zimbabwean nation for this achievement Within Church circles Archbishop Chakaipas name is synonymous with the policy of self reliance which was his signal achievement in the Archdiocese of Harare He was determined to see the development of indigenous Zimbabwean writers frustrated that the world of ideas in Zimbabwe was dominated by Eurogenic of European origin missionaries In his view such Eurogenic intellectual domination undermined Zimbabwean and African independence In the book I argue that while Archbishop Chakaipa was a hero indeed one deserving of canonisation as a Catholic saint true respect for him should also acknowledge his negative qualities Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2009 Zimbolicious Anthology: Volume 3

Staunton,2003-06-15 The history of Zimbabwe has always been reflected in its oral and written literature Much of the serious fiction written in the 1980s and early 1990s focused on the effects of Zimbabwe s war of liberation Little has yet been written about post independence Zimbabwe and the complex and challenging issues that have arisen in the last twenty years This anthology of twenty two short stories provides a representative sample of the range and quality of writing in Zimbabwe at the turn of the century and an impressionistic reflection of the years since independence in 1980 Included are stories by established writers Shimmer Chinodya Charles Mungoshi Brian Chikwava and some younger or less established writers Clement Chihota Wonder Guchu Chiedza Musengezi Mary Ndlovu Vivienne Ndlovu and Stanley Nyamfukudza The collection also reflects a slightly broader perspective with stories by Alexandra Fuller Derek Huggins Pat Brickhill and Chris Wilson who engage with historical memory of the conflicts out of which Zimbabwe arose and the lessons to be drawn from living within a culture other than one s own Overall the anthology reaffirms the persistent value attached to imaginative writing in Zimbabwe and illustrates that the country s literary tradition is alive and well and reshaping itself for new times

Writing Now. More Stories from Zimbabwe Irene Staunton, 2005-06-15 The sequel to the award winning Writing Still this new collection of stories paints an engaging and sometimes challenging picture of contemporary life and concerns in Zimbabwe Like its predecessor Writing Now combines well established writers Chinodya Mupfudzi Eppel Chingono with several new voices Although the stories emerge from lives of economic hardship and privation their tone is by no means uniformly Zimbabwean writers continue to demonstrate that sharp humour and surreal fantasy can grow from the bleakest of roots
