Stanton,2013-09-01 Modeled after the BBC the Palestine Broadcasting Service was launched in 1936 to serve as the national radio station of Mandate Palestine playing a pivotal role in shaping the culture of the emerging middle class in the region Despite its significance the PBS has become nearly forgotten by scholars of twentieth century Middle Eastern studies Drawn extensively from British and Israeli archival sources This Is Jerusalem Calling traces the compelling history of the PBS s twelve years of operation illuminating crucial aspects of a period when Jewish and Arab national movements simultaneously took form Andrea L Stanton describes the ways in which the mandate government used broadcasting to cater to varied audiences including rural Arab listeners in an attempt to promote a modern vision of Arab

Palestine as an urbane politically sophisticated region In addition to programming designed for the education of the peasantry religious broadcasting was created to appeal to all three main faith communities in Palestine which ultimately may have had a disintegrating separatist effect Stanton s research brings to light the manifestation of Britain s attempts to prepare its mandate state for self governance while supporting the aims of Zionists While the PBS did not create the conflict between Arab Palestinians and Zionists the service reflected articulated and magnified such tensions during an era when radio broadcasting was becoming a key communication tool for emerging national identities around the globe
