To give way for hostages' release

U.S. must admit Iran 'crimes'

WASHINGTON — The United States must admit the "crimes" of the Iranian revolution and the actions of the Islamic Republic of Iran to secure the release of the American hostages held in Iran, a top administration official said today.

The official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the United States must "admit that the Islamic Republic of Iran is a hostile country and that it is a threat to the security of the Persian Gulf region."

The official said the United States must also "admit that the Islamic Republic of Iran has committed crimes against the United States and against the people of Iran."
