European Dept., 2023-07-05 Serbia has made impressive economic gains over much of the past decade living standards improved inflation fell public finances were strengthened and reserves increased helped by ample foreign direct investment FDI inflows But spillovers from the war in Ukraine especially the sharp increase in international energy prices and deep rooted problems in Serbia's energy sector that came to a head last year led to large external and fiscal financing needs prompting

This paper assesses Romania's Third Review Under the Stand By Arrangement and a Request for Waiver of Performance Criterion Romania's macroeconomic performance continued to be favorable but slippages in wage policy and privatization delayed the completion of the third review Robust GDP growth continued throughout 2002 and progress in reducing inflation and the current account deficit was better than targeted However financial discipline in the state owned sector remained weak and the end September performance criterion on the wage bill in monitored state owned enterprises was not observed

Iraq International Monetary Fund,2007-03-22 This paper discusses key findings of the Third and Fourth Reviews Under the Stand By Arrangement SBA for Iraq Economic growth in 2006 was below target because oil production did not increase as projected This reflected lower than planned investment and the lack of security Inflation increased to 65 percent in 2006 to December 2006 This was mainly owing to shortages of key commodities caused in part by the ongoing insurgency The underlying rate of inflation has also remained high Republic of Kosovo International Monetary Fund.
