

Laboratory Activity 42 — Student Laboratory Packet Making Connections A Laboratory Activity for the College Environment

Measuring Competencies

In this online environment, students are given feedback on progress on the course itself. But students themselves have indicated that progress requires a less linear approach. Rather, a greater knowledge of how to learn might result in a greater ability to learn. The challenge is to provide students with the opportunity to learn. Many online environments are not able to do this because they are not able to provide a more personal and more relevant experience.

Following are some suggestions for how to use the online environment to help students learn. The first suggestion is to use the online environment to help students learn. The second suggestion is to use the online environment to help students learn. The third suggestion is to use the online environment to help students learn. The fourth suggestion is to use the online environment to help students learn. The fifth suggestion is to use the online environment to help students learn.

In this part of the laboratory activity, you will learn about the importance of the online environment and how to use it to help students learn. You will also learn about the importance of the online environment and how to use it to help students learn.
