Smith,2019-01-30 Female seminaries in nineteenth century America

offered middle class women the rare privilege of training in music and the liberal arts A music background in particular provided the foundation for a teaching career one of the few paths open to women Jewel A Smith opens the doors of four female seminaries revealing a milieu where rigorous training focused on music as an artistic pursuit rather than a social skill Drawing on previously untapped archives Smith charts women s musical experiences and training as well as the curricula and instruction available to them the repertoire they mastered and the philosophies undergirding their education She also examines the complex tensions between the ideals of a young democracy and a deeply gendered system of education and professional advancement An in depth study of female seminaries as major institutions of learning Transforming Women s Education illuminates how musical training added to women s lives and how their artistic acumen contributed to American society

Abraham Robinson Joseph Warren Dauben, 2014-07-14 One of the most prominent mathematicians of the twentieth century Abraham Robinson discovered and developed nonstandard analysis a rigorous theory of infinitesimals that he used to unite mathematical logic with the larger body of historic and modern mathematics In this first biography of Robinson Joseph Dauben reveals the mathematician s personal life to have been a dramatic one developing his talents in spite of war and ethnic repression Robinson personally confronted some of the worst political troubles of our times With the skill and expertise familiar to readers of Dauben s earlier works the book combines an explanation of Robinson s revolutionary achievements in pure and applied mathematics with a description of his odyssey from Hitler s Germany to the United States via conflict ridden Palestine and wartime Europe Robinson was born in Prussia in 1918 As a boy he fled with his mother and brother Saul to Palestine A decade later he narrowly escaped from Paris as the Germans invaded France Having spent the rest of World War II in England at the Royal Aircraft Establishment in Farnborough he began his teaching career at the Royal College of Aeronautics Subsequently he moved to universities in Canada Israel and finally the United States A joint appointment in mathematics and philosophy at UCLA led to a position at Yale University where Robinson served as Sterling Professor of Mathematics until his untimely death at the age of fifty five Originally published in 1995 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
