

A Creepy short story

Once in a while I dream strange stuff. I fell like my dreams connect to an out-space reality somehow, but the strangest dream I have ever had is the one I am willing to describe you next:

< I didn't know I was fast asleep when all this started, but I was going to find it out pretty soon. I have a really good hearing, a musician one, it's called 'perfect pitch'. I have developed my ear more through years (if possible), but I was born with this gift. As I do have it, when I was sleeping I could mix all my home sounds up within the sound of my sleeping brain.

I could feel a breeze, a cold one getting deep into my neck. There was no light at all, but a close dark instead....All of a sudden, a torch was turned on and I could appreciate gargoyles staring at me. I have to point out they were not stone gargoyles, but alive ones. Their skins were as grey as they are in our 'real' world, but they had a silver bright as if they were made of some sort of metallic material. As far as I knew I was surrounded by many of those creatures., I could not be less than petrified.

I started to scream with the hope there would be someone there to assist me, but there was no response. I was lonely. But nothing happened except that I heard then my husband saying:

-Hey honey, you're having a nightmare, wake up, please!

I heard him several times before I could understand I was in my dream, so I made a big effort to wake myself up, but couldn't. I tried to move my leg, but no success at all, not even my arms or my head moved. But I had suffered from sleep paralysis many times before, so I knew what had to be done.

People suffering from this disorder know well how scaring that experience can be, however, I am "well-used" to it and I tried my best to move one of my fingers, then the second, and so on... I could move at the end all my arm, and my body after; as it I would be a Domino Rally racing set.

I got up with a sudden gesture, jerking awake while I could distinguish my husband trying to calm me down. I was just dreaming...or wasn't I?>
