[DATE]
Dear [NAME OF SUPERVISOR],
Greetings!

I am writing to formally inform you that, due to personal reasons, I am requesting a leave of absence from work. As agreed during our meeting yesterday, I shall be actively taking some personal time to improve my physical and mental health. My leave of absence shall begin on [START DATE] and end on [END DATE]. I shall be back at the office on the workday after, on [EXPECTED DATE OF RETURN].

To ensure that my work is not delayed, I shall be finishing all my pending tasks and delegate my work for the next few months to my teammates. Should you have any work-related questions or queries, you may reach me through my mobile phone or email address.

Please let me know if you have any more questions regarding my request for a leave of absence.

Sincerely,

[NAME OF SENDER]

Fitzpatrick,2007 This volume will be of particular interest to readers interested in expanding the applications of corpus linguistics techniques through new tools and approaches The text includes selected papers from the Fifth North American Symposium hosted by the Linguistics Department at Montclair State University in Montclair New Jersey in May 2004 The symposium papers represented several areas of corpus studies including language development syntactic analysis pragmatics and discourse language change register variation corpus creation and annotation and practical applications of corpus work primarily in language teaching but also in medical training and machine translation A common thread through most of the papers was the use of corpora to study domains longer than the word Not surprisingly fully half of the papers deal with the computational tools and linguistic strategies needed to search for and analyze these longer spans of language while most of the remaining papers examine particular syntactic and rhetorical properties of one or more corpora
