The American Influence on International Commercial Arbitration Pedro J. Martinez-Fraga, 2020-07-02 As in its first edition this book traces the contours of select US common law doctrinal developments concerning international commercial arbitration This new edition supplements the foundational work contained in the first edition in order to produce a broader and deeper work The author explores how the US common law may help bridge cross cultural legal differences by focusing on the need to address these contrasting approaches through the nomenclature and goal of securing equality between party autonomy and arbitrator discretion in international commercial arbitration This book thus focuses on the common law development of arbitrator immunity as well as the precepts of party initiative and autonomy forming part of the US common law discovery rubric that may contribute to promoting expediency efficiency and transparency in international commercial arbitration proceedings It does so by carefully analyzing among other things the International Bar Association IBA Rules on Evidence Gathering the Prague Rules and the role of 28 USC 1782 in international arbitration Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, with Forms United States. Supreme Court, 2021 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 2004 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the United States District Courts Judiciary, 2015-02-06 Contains the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure together with forms as amended to December 1 2014 The rules and forms have been promulgated and amended by the United States Supreme Court pursuant to law and further amended by Acts of Congress The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure govern civil proceedings in the United States district courts Their purpose is to secure the just speedy and inexpensive determination of every action and proceeding Fed R Civ P 1 The rules and accompanying forms were first adopted by order of the Supreme Court on December 20 1937 transmitted to Congress on January 3 1938 and effective September 16 1938 The Civil Rules were last amended in 2014 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure House, Committee on the Judiciary Staff, 2020 Electronic Disclosure in International Arbitration David J. Howell, 2008 International arbitration faces the challenge of the exponential increase in the volume of electronically stored information While there has been a convergence in the accepted scope of disclosure in international arbitration chiefly reflected in the IBA Rules on Evidence there is widespread concern about the potential burdens of disclosure of electronic documents with regard to the litigation experience Arbitrators are rapidly having to come to terms with these issues in an arbitration context in order to meet the needs and expectations of the parties A number of arbitration institutions are currently considering rule changes or protocols to address the disclosure of electronic documents This publication analyses the procedural practical and technical issues and addresses the appropriate approach to electronic disclosure in international arbitration including those lessons and principles that can usefully be adapted from the litigation experience Contributors include leading arbitrators arbitration counsel in house counsel and IT experts including leading experts in the field of electronic data management Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Committee on the Judiciary House of Repr,2013-02-21 This document contains the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure together with forms as amended to December 1 2008 The rules and forms have been promulgated and amended by the United States Supreme Court pursuant to law and further amended by Acts of Congress This document has been prepared by the Committee in response to the need for an official up to date document containing the latest amendments to the rules
