

OBJECTIVE LAW

Objective law is the set of rules of social conduct that govern relationships between people and which benefit from state constraint, that is to say that the state guarantees compliance.

It revolves around the notion of rule of law which should be defined before to consider its sources and its various classifications, i.e. the branches of law.

CHAPTER 1: DEFINITION OF THE RULE OF LAW

The rule of law is a rule of conduct that governs relationships between people. The moral rule is concerned with the duties of man towards others, men and of himself and has as its goal the improvement of the person and the blossoming of conscience, while the Law aims above all to enforce a certain collective order.

Morality Law Religion

Law, of social essence, is obviously guided by values in the choice of its imperatives and it is therefore not always easy to discern it from Morality as the overlap is total in several areas (prohibition of theft and homicide).

However, Law and Morality keep specific areas. Indeed, the right rule of relations where Morality is silent: it matters little to Morality whether one drives on the right or
