Dear Ms. Boone,

As a Certified Special Education Instructor with over 9 years of experience in childhood program administration and special education teaching, I'm confident that my background aligns perfectly with the Special Education Teacher opening at Mountainridge Charter School.

Throughout my teaching career, I've been acknowledged for designing and implementing interactive lessons by employing manipulatives and IEPs to target the individual needs of special education students. In my current role as Special Education Teacher for Woodlawn Community School, I teach an emotionally impaired class consisting of 20 students while working closely with other instructors to plan a curriculum that adheres to IEP standards. Please consider the following highlights of my career:

- Developed 12 educational, enrichment, and skill-based programs for diverse learners
- Contributed to the continuous improvement of four programs by analyzing students' skills and interests and revamping programs accordingly
- Hold a Bachelor's degree in Special Education along with certifications in Childhood Education and Students with Disabilities

Handbook of Response to Intervention and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support

Paige C. Pullen, Michael J. Kennedy, 2018-10-04 Of the many issues facing special education and general education today it is difficult to imagine one more important or timely than response to intervention RTI Almost overnight RTI has become standard practice across the nation Unfortunately RTI remains ill defined falls far short of its evidence based practice goal is almost invariably misused and often results in more harm than good Nevertheless as a conceptual framework RTI has great potential for ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate evidence based instruction The mission of this handbook is to present a comprehensive and integrated discussion of response to intervention RTI and its relation to multi tiered systems of support MTSS in both special education and general education Although the two terms are currently used interchangeably distinct differences exist between them Therefore chapters are dedicated to distinguishing the two concepts RTI and MTSS and describing each one s unique role in both general and special education In addition the authors recommend a third term Multi Tiered Instruction to differentiate the practices related to the purpose of the specific intervention
