Past Pleasures Desire Through Time English Edition:

The Philosophy of the Commentators, 200-600 AD: Psychology (with ethics and religion) Richard Sorabji, 2005 This is the first work to draw on the four hundred years of transition from ancient Greek philosophy to the medieval philosophy of Islam and the West During this period philosophy was often written in the form of commentaries on the works of Plato and Aristotle Many ideas wrongly credited to the Middle Ages derive from these centuries such as that of impetus in dynamics and intentional objects in philosophy of mind The later Neoplatonist commentators fought a losing battle with Christianity but inadvertently made Aristotle acceptable to Christians by ascribing to him belief in a Creator God and human immortality The commentators provide a panorama of up to a thousand years of Greek philosophy much of which would otherwise be lost They also serve as the missing link essential for understanding the subsequent history of Western philosophy Volume 1 deals with psychology which for the Neoplatonist commentators was the gateway to metaphysics and theology It was the subject on which Plato and Aristotle disagreed most and on which the commentators went furthest beyond them in their search for synthesis Ethics and religious practice fall naturally under psychology and are included in this volume All sources appear in English translation and are carefully linked and cross referenced by editorial comment and explanation Bibliographies are provided throughout

Desert and Virtue Stephen Kershnar, 2009-10-29 Desert and Virtue A Theory of Intrinsic Value presents a comprehensive examination of desert and what makes people deserve things Stephen Kershnar demonstrates how desert relates to virtue good deeds moral responsibility and personal change and growth through the life process He persuasively argues that desert is a function that relates well being intrinsic value and a ground which is defined as a person's character or act Kershnar also explores whether his theory is consistent with the limited responsibility people have for who they are Desert and Virtue's insightful analysis will be particularly useful for those interested in philosophy religion and other fields that touch on value theory

Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference Megan Loumagne Ulishney, 2022-11-03 Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference develops an interdisciplinary conversation between evolutionary biology feminist philosophy and theology in order to illuminate the entanglement of Christian thinking about original sin with theologies of sexual difference It then assesses the opportunities for rethinking original sin and its implications for theologies of sexual difference in light of developments in evolutionary biology and feminist theology and philosophy Despite some resistances in the present age to conceptions of both original sin and meaningful sexual differences this study argues that both can provide essential insights that help to make sense of some of the features of human life in the twenty first century especially the stubborn persistence of inequality poverty environmental degradation and the pernicious patterns of sexual violence and abuse that have been uncovered by the MeToo movement To this end Megan Loumagne Ulishney marshals resources from a variety of places Augustine of Hippo feminist theology the Extended Evolutionary Synthesis John Paul II and a new group of feminist philosophers known as the New Feminist Materialists to develop an analysis of original sin and sexual difference that is grounded in both scientific and theological insights about creaturely life. The project cultivates a sense of wonder at the diversity and unpredictability of human biology, a value for the role of creativity in the human participation that partially shapes our ongoing evolution, and humility about the extent to which we can predict and control the future of the evolution of our species. It illuminates the interdependencies that define creaturely life: the persistent entanglement of nature and culture; the centrality of desire to human identity and behaviour; and the role played by biology in the transmission of sin. It develops a vision of material life as evolving, generative and imbued with activity, but also as simultaneously infected with sin and saturated with the divine.

The Pleasures of Memory in Shakespeare's Sonnets John S. Garrison, 2024-01-13. This imaginative and richly detailed study explores the deep connection between desire and recollection in Shakespeare's poetry. Drawing on cognitive science, the early modern memory arts, and psychoanalysis, as well as works by contemporary authors, the book shows how Shakespeare's Sonnets treat memory as a form of poetic narrative.

The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature Jodie Medd, 2015-12-10. The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature examines literary representations of lesbian sexuality, identities, and communities from the medieval period to the present. In addition to providing a helpful orientation to key literary historical periods, critical concepts, theoretical debates, and literary genres, this Companion considers the work of such well-known authors as Virginia Woolf, Adrienne Rich, Audre Lorde, Alison Bechdel, and Sarah Waters. Written by a host of leading critics and covering subjects as diverse as lesbian desire in the long eighteenth century and same-sex love in a postcolonial context, this Companion delivers insight into the variety of traditions that have shaped the present landscape of lesbian literature.

Remembrance of Things Past: Volume 2 Marcel Proust, 2016-11-24. One of the greatest translations of all time, Scott Moncrieff's classic version of Proust published in three stunning clothbound volumes designed by Coralie Bickford Smith. Proust's masterpiece is one of the seminal works of the twentieth century, recording its narrator's experiences as he grows up, falls in love, and lives through the First World War. A profound reflection on art, time, memory, self, and loss, it is often viewed as the definitive modern novel. C. K. Scott Moncrieff's famous translation from the 1920s is today regarded as a classic in its own right and is now available in three volumes in Penguin Classics. This first volume includes Swann's Way and Within a Budding Grove. Scott Moncrieff's volumes belong to that special category of translations which are themselves literary masterpieces; his book is one of those translations such as the Authorized Version of the Bible itself, which can never be displaced.

A. N. Wilson. For the reader wishing to tackle Proust, your guide must be C. K. Scott Moncrieff. There are some who believe his headily perfumed translation of la recherche du temps perdu conjures Belle époque France more vividly even than the original. Telegraph. I was more interested and fascinated by your rendering than by Proust's creation.

Routledge Library Editions: Lacan Various, 2021-07-28. A major influence on French intellectuals in the twentieth century, Jacques Lacan has been referred to as the most controversial psychoanalyst since Freud.

Routledge Library Editions Lacan offers a selection of titles which examine the influence of Lacan's theories in a number of disciplines and includes an annotated bibliography of his works. It brings together as a set or individual volumes a series of previously out of print titles originally published between 1983 and 1991. Cruising Utopia, 10th Anniversary Edition

José Esteban Muñoz, 2019-04-23 A 10th anniversary edition of this field defining work an intellectual inspiration for a generation of LGBTQ scholars. Cruising Utopia arrived in 2009 to insist that queerness must be reimagined as a futurity bound phenomenon an insistence on the potentiality of another world that would crack open the pragmatic present. Part manifesto part love letter to the past and the future. José Esteban Muñoz argued that the here and now were not enough and issued an urgent call for the revivification of the queer political imagination. On the anniversary of its original publication this edition includes two essays that extend and expand the project of Cruising Utopia as well as a new foreword by the current editors of Sexual Cultures the book series he co founded with Ann Pellegrini 20 years ago. This 10th anniversary edition celebrates the lasting impact that Cruising Utopia has had on the decade of queer of color critique that followed and introduces a new generation of readers to a future not yet here. Depth Psychology, Interpretation, and the Bible

Brayton Polka, 2001-02-12 Polka also raises the larger issue of the relationship between modernity hermeneutics and biblical ontology. He argues that the origins and structure of modern values can be understood only through a theory of hermeneutics whose ontology overcomes the dualism between the secular and the religious between philosophy and religion. Polka shows this to be possible when biblical ontology is understood to be at once rational and faithful secular and religious. He uses the work of Spinoza Kant Hegel and Kierkegaard to articulate the ontological framework that makes clear how typically modern Freud is in being unable to account for the relationship of his thought to biblical religion. Polka argues that Freudian metapsychology precisely because it cannot account for its own principles of explanation contradicts the insights of depth psychology. Paradoxically religion returns in Freud as the repressed as it does in so much of modern thought. Polka shows that what is therefore required is a hermeneutical theory whose ontological articulation of biblical religion is critically self conscious. Painful pleasures Christopher Vaccaro, 2022-07-12 This timely volume ventures into the subject of sadomasochism in varied aspects of medieval life. Saint's Lives and mystical treatises provide evidence of failed sadism and empowering masochism. Literary culture in the form of epics and courtly tales preserve stories of eroticised power. These exciting chapters join together to form a picture of medieval culture that is kinky in its practice and deeply psychological at its core. Fugitive Essays by Josiah Royce Josiah Royce, 1920 A Mind Of One's Own Louise Antony, Charlotte

Witt, 2018-03-08 With philosophy so steeped in patriarchal tradition how is it possible for feminists to work within it. In this volume 13 feminist theorists discuss whether traditional ideals of objectivity and rationality should be given a place within the committed feminist view of philosophy and the world. Edinburgh Companion to Queer Reading Declan

Kavanagh, Jeremy Chow, 2024-11-30 What does it mean to read queerly. The Edinburgh Companion to Queer Reading upholds intersectional thinking to recognise the wide currency and appeal of queer studies for a new generation of scholars activists students and interested allies Its four interconnecting parts transing queer readings reading queer ecologies queer reading as practice and reading queer futures speak to and help to critique and foreground expansive queer epistemologies Contributors evocatively explore the relationships between queerness and genders embodiments race narrative methodology history literature media and art Bringing together emerging and established queer theorists this timely collection demonstrates how germane queer readings theories and companions are to the livelihood of interdisciplinary research and humanistic inquiry in the 2020s

Romantic Revolutions Kenneth R. Johnston,1990

Performativity & Belonging Vikki Bell,1999-08-27 This book explores belonging as a performative achievement The contributors investigate how identities are embodied and effected and how lines of allegiance and fracture are produced and reproduced Questions of difference are tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of history and politics Drawing on sociology philosophy and anthropology this collection brings together leading commentators including Judith Butler Paul Gilroy and Arjun Appadurai as well as a range of new scholars It examines questions of visibility political affiliation ethics mimesis spatiality passing and diversity in modes of embodied difference The volume advances conceptual and theoretical issues through testing various propositions around specific examples or questions What emerges is a rich engagement with the complexity of contemporary forms of belonging Getting Past Capitalism Cynthia Kaufman,2012-08-25 Getting Past Capitalism begins with a critique of the impacts of capitalism on human society and the environment It looks in new ways at what capitalism is and at how it is reproduced That investigation opens the door to fresh ways of looking at how to challenge it Cynthia Kaufman looks at some fundamental questions about how capitalism comes to look like a system that is unbeatable and how people come to have desires that work to reinforce capitalism Kaufman uses this analysis to develop ideas about how to challenge capitalism She argues that rather than looking for the fulcrum point in a system that will make it able to be overthrown we should try to understand what kinds of practices open more spaces for stopping the reproduction of capitalist processes and what kinds of structures need to be developed to make capitalism a less important part of our world Getting Past Capitalism includes a critique of capitalism and presentation of alternatives to capitalism many of which already exist It explores strategies for developing and strengthening those alternatives

Vedic Creationism Ashish Dalela,2008-12 The idea that the universe was created by God often meets hostile opposition from proponents of rationality and science because unlike science that creates empirical laws religious theories seem to make no verifiable predictions But in Vedic Creationism author Ashish K Dalela shows that a personal theistic account of creation given in the Vedas has radical implications for the study of matter and questions of creation including new verifiable predictions based upon a different conception of reality An expansive examination of the meaning of the universe by comparing and contrasting varying philosophical vantages Vedic Creationism covers the journey from Vedic notions on God s personality and conscious mind to the implication these ideas have for the origins of life and the attainment of quantum gravity Dalela relates the ideas in Vedic philosophy with the current state of affairs in modern science including the mind body problem the unification of quantum and relativity theories and the question of evolution and origins of life Presenting new forward looking ideas Vedic Creationism will help put the age old wisdom of Vedas in a modern light and open new areas of dialogue Appalling Bodies Joseph A. Marchal, 2019-11-08 The letters of Paul are among the most commonly cited biblical texts in ongoing cultural and religious disputes about gender sexuality and embodiment Appalling Bodies reframes these uses of the letters by reaching past Paul toward other far more fascinating figures that appear before after and within the letters The letters repeat ancient stereotypes about women eunuchs slaves and barbarians in their Roman imperial setting each of these overlapping groups were cast as debased dangerous and complicated Joseph Marchal presents new ways for us to think about these dangers and complications with the help of queer theory Appalling Bodies juxtaposes these ancient figures against recent figures of gender and sexual variation in order to defamiliarize and reorient what can be known about both The connections between the marginalization and stigmatization of these figures troubles the history ethics and politics of biblical interpretation Ultimately Marchal assembles and reintroduces us to Appalling Bodies from then and now and the study of Paul's letters may never be the same

Shopping for Pleasure Erika Rappaport, 2021-06-08 In Shopping for Pleasure Erika Rappaport reconstructs London's Victorian and Edwardian West End as an entertainment and retail center In this neighborhood of stately homes royal palaces and spacious parks and squares a dramatic transformation unfolded that ultimately changed the meaning of femininity and the lives of women shaping their experience of modernity Rappaport illuminates the various forces of the period that encouraged and discouraged women's enjoyment of public life and particularly shows how shopping came to be seen as the quintessential leisure activity for middle and upper class women Through extensive histories of department stores women's magazines clubs teashops restaurants and the theater as interwoven sites of consumption Shopping for Pleasure uncovers how a new female urban culture emerged before and after the turn of the twentieth century Moving beyond the question of whether shopping promoted or limited women's freedom the author draws on diverse sources to explore how business practices legal decisions and cultural changes affected women in the market In particular she focuses on how and why stores presented themselves as pleasurable secure places for the urban woman in some cases defining themselves as instrumental to civic improvement and women's emancipation Rappaport also considers such influences as merchandizing strategies credit policies changes in public transportation feminism and the financial balance of power within the home Shopping for Pleasure is thus both a social and cultural history of the West End but on a broader scale it reveals the essential interplay between the rise of consumer society the birth of modern femininity and the making of contemporary London
