Paul Farmer To Repair The World:

To Repair the World Paul Farmer, 2013-05 Here are highlights from Paul Farmer's speeches to a variety of audiences from Princeton to Harvard to Notre Dame to Berkeley Paul is a rock star of the academy who has a large following among many groups students doctors general readers activists public health folks professors He is the piper of everyone who wants to change the world Not only is he cofounder of Partners In Health U S Deputy Special Envoy to Haiti head of social medicine at Harvard but he is also a charming humorous engaging public speaker whose charisma is legend In this book conceived of as a graduation gift for students write large Farmer addresses the challenges facing young people with a call for them to change the world and become activists Paul Farmer Jennie Weiss Block, 2018-10-22 Bill Gates has called Paul Farmer one of the most amazing people he has ever met CNN medical correspondent Dr Sanjay Gupta says that if pure altruism exists in humans it probably looks a lot like Dr Paul Farmer In Paul Farmer: Servant to the Poor Jennie Weiss Block introduces readers to this physician and medical anthropologist of international stature whose Catholic faith has driven him to work untiringly to make a preferential option for the poor in health care Farmer with his colleagues at Harvard University and Partners in Health have been instrumental in bringing the fruits of modern medicine to millions of the poorest people in the world in places like Haiti Rwanda Peru Russia Malawi and West Africa during the recent Ebola crisis Challenging the conventional wisdom of global health experts Dr Farmer has shown it is possible to deliver high quality medical care on a large scale in settings of great poverty and to build communities around the globe where good health and hope prevail

Repair Péter Érdi, Zsuzsa Szvetelszky, 2022-09-07 This book propagates a new way of thinking about managing our resources by integrating the perspectives of complex systems theory and social psychology By resources the authors mean objects such as cell phones and cars and human resources such as family members friends and the small and large communities they belong to As we all face the replace or repair dichotomy readers will understand how to repair themselves their relationships and communities accept the new normal and contribute to repairing the world The book is offered to Zoomers growing up in a world where it seems everything is falling apart people in their 30s and 40s who are thinking about how to live a fulfilling life people from the Boomers generation who are thinking back on life and how to repair relationships The Reader will enjoy the intellectual adventure of connecting the natural and social worlds and understanding the transition's pathways from a throwaway society to a repair society

Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy: Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures Heidi Neumark Henri Nouwen Gregory Boyle Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer gleaning their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion connection justice and freedom Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness beauty and love This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care This work is a scholarly engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology Heather Walton University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology July 2016 Based on biographies interviews and life stories Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter cultural emotion as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit In her research joy and reason are not ultimately opposed Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Professor of Pastoral Care Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University July 2016 This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy grief death and dying and vocational courses Carrie Doehring Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Iliff School of Theology Denver August 2016 Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who lives constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies Yale University August 2016 A Prophet to the Peoples Jennie Weiss Block,M. Therese Lysaught,Alexandre A. Martins,2023-05-04 The Global Theological Ethics book series focuses on works that feature authors from around the world draw on resources from the traditions of Catholic theological ethics and attend to concrete issues facing the world today It advances the Journal of Moral Theology s mission of fostering scholarship deeply rooted in traditions of inquiry about the moral life engaged with contemporary issues and exploring the interface of Catholic moral theology philosophy economics political philosophy psychology and more This series is sponsored in conjunction with the Catholic Theological Ethics and the World Church The CTEWC recognizes the need to dialogue from and beyond local cultures and to interconnect within a world church Its global network of scholars practitioners and activists fosters cross cultural interdisciplinary conversations via conferences symposia and colloquia both in person and virtually about critical issues in theological ethics shaped by shared visions of hope

Nuclear Ghost Ryo Morimoto,2023-06-13 There is a nuclear ghost in Minamis oma explained an elderly local who had a mysterious experiencing following the 2011 nuclear disaster in coastal Fukushima In his highly original book Ryo Morimoto explores the nuclear ghost that lives among the graying population that remained in the contaminated region after the fallout Encountering radiation s shape shifting effects on residents livelihoods nonhuman others and local ecologies at the edges of evacuation zones Morimoto asks what happens if the state authority scientific experts and the public dispute over the extent threshold and nature of the harm from the accident As one of the first in depth ethnographic accounts of life after Fukushima in English Nuclear Ghost offers dazzling stories from a diverse group of residents who aspire to live and die well in their now irradiated homes offering a compelling case for reimagining relationality and accountability in the ever atomizing world

Dawn Rose on a Dead Body Adèle Blazquez,2025-03-11 Featured prominently in the Netflix series Narcos Badiraguato is known as the birthplace of Mexico's most notorious criminals from Caro Quintero to El Chapo But in this rural community in the Sinaloa sierra what is the daily life of those invisible in the criminal fresco who live in this jobless region grow a tiny patch of poppies run a grocery store or hold a position in the local government Who are the poppy farmers caught between military repression and exploitation by those who buy their crops What does it mean to be a woman in a place where men's violence looms How can people make sense of the killings that punctuate daily life This sensitive ethnography lifts the veil on a marginalized territory that is the downside of our globalized economy an ethnography that confronts us with the uncertainty that reigns when once again Dawn rose on a dead body Dispossessed Noelle Stout,2019-06-04 In the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis more than 14 million U S homeowners filed for foreclosure Focusing on the hard hit Sacramento Valley Noelle Stout uncovers the predacious bureaucracy that organized the largest bank seizure of residential homes in U S history Stout reveals the failure of Wall Street banks mortgage assistance programs backed by over 300 billion of federal funds to deliver on the promise of relief Unlike the programs of the Great Depression in which the government took on the toxic mortgage debt of Americans corporate lenders and loan servicers ultimately denied over 70 percent of homeowner applications In the voices of bank employees and homeowners Stout unveils how call center representatives felt about denying appeals and shares the fears of families living on the brink of eviction Stout discloses the impacts of rising inequality on homeowners from whites who felt their middle class life unraveling to communities of color who experienced a more precipitous and dire decline Trapped in a Kafkaesque maze of mortgage assistance borrowers began to view debt refusal as a moral response to lenders as seemingly mundane bureaucratic dramas came to redefine the meaning of debt and dispossession Deported to Death Jeremy Slack,2019-07-30 What happens to migrants after they are deported from the United States and dropped off at the Mexican border often hundreds if not thousands of miles from their hometowns In this eye opening work Jeremy Slack foregrounds the voices and experiences of Mexican deportees who frequently become targets of extreme forms of violence including migrant massacres upon their return to Mexico Navigating the complex world of the border Slack investigates how the high profile drug war has led to more than two hundred thousand deaths in Mexico and how many deportees stranded and vulnerable in unfamiliar cities have become fodder for drug cartel struggles Like no other book before it Deported to Death reshapes debates on the long term impact of border enforcement and illustrates the complex decisions migrants must make about whether to attempt the return to an often dangerous life in Mexico or face increasingly harsh punishment in the United States Scratching Out a Living Angela Stuesse,2016-01-26 How has Latino immigration transformed the South In what ways is the presence of these newcomers complicating efforts to organize for workplace justice Scratching Out a Living takes readers deep into Mississippi's chicken processing plants and communities where large numbers of Latin American migrants were recruited in the mid 1990s to labor alongside an established African American workforce in some of the most dangerous and lowest paid jobs in the country As America s voracious appetite for chicken has grown so has the industry s reliance on immigrant workers whose structural position makes them particularly vulnerable to exploitation Based on the author s six years of collaboration with a local workers center this book explores how Black white and new Latino Mississippians have lived and understood these transformations Activist anthropologist Angela Stuesse argues that people s racial identifications and relationships to the poultry industry prove vital to their interpretations of the changes they are experiencing Illuminating connections between the area s long history of racial inequality the industry s growth and drive to lower labor costs immigrants contested place in contemporary social relations and workers prospects for political mobilization Scratching Out a Living paints a compelling ethnographic portrait of neoliberal globalization and calls for organizing strategies that bring diverse working communities together in mutual construction of a more just future
