

Leadership Philosophy

Eisenhower said once said, "Leadership consists of nothing but taking responsibility for everything that goes wrong and giving your subordinates credit for everything that goes well".

(<http://www.maxwell.af.mil/au/awc/ins/electives/sld/sldsy.htm>)

Any deliberation about leadership must begin with the recognition of the fact that people want to be led. It is obvious to a great extent in the face of a calamity they find comfort and inspiration from their leaders. This is also true on a day-to-day basis. People tend to need and seek out guidance from strong leaders. "Leaders organize people—whether in a multinational corporation, a civic or charitable enterprise, a family business, or a high school." (Ashby and Miles, 2002)

Of course this can be achieved through perpetual torture and extreme fear of the leading officer but Constables and Lieutenants under such a Captain will not give their job a 100 percent and the direct negative outcome of that will be that the team will not be functioning at full capacity. Firstly a leader must illustrate devotion and commitment to a life of service.

Secondly, it is of vital importance that a leader must be considerate and concerned about his people. (Puryear, Jr.) These tie in with the principle of observation of a role model. A leader's subordinates have to see that their leader is entirely dedicated to his job and doesn't only treat it as a job or simple tasks which have to be performed out of duty. A leader must display his love of the occupation so that his subordinates have a role model to follow. However, they will not follow him without question if he doesn't demonstrate affection for those under him. There is no need for physical forms of affection.

The kind of affection needed can simply be demonstrated by thoughtfulness from a leader. A leader needs t
