The Social World after COVID-19 Paulo Alexandre e Castro, 2022-11-09 This collection discusses different aspects of the COVID 19 pandemic which began in December 2019 in Wuhan China brought together under the slogan of social worlds It is a book dedicated to thinking a posteriori about the implications and consequences of the pandemic bearing in mind that it was a challenge political social economic and philosophical that tested the limits of human nature and the condition of humans in a world whose logic seems to slip away In this sense this volume brings together different approaches to this topic ranging from philosophy to sociology and from politics to social work thus constituting an original work on such a delicate issue

The Magic of Technology Alf Hornborg, 2022-10-20 This book examines our understanding of technology and suggests that machines are counterfeit organisms that seem to replace human bodies but are ultimately means of displacing workloads and environmental loads beyond our horizon It emphasises that technology is not the politically neutral revelation of natural principles that we tend to think but largely a means of accumulating through physically asymmetric exchange the material means of harnessing natural forces to reinforce social relations of power Alf Hornborg reflects on how our cultural illusions about technology appeared in history and how they continue to stand in the way of visions for an equal and sustainable world He argues for a critical reconceptualisation of modern technology as an institution for redistributing human time resources and risks in world society The book highlights a need to think of world trade in other terms than money and raises fundamental questions about the role of human artifact relations in organising human societies It will be of
