British Labour and Higher Education, 1945 to 2000 Tom Steele, 2011-04-21 Higher education provision is an essential component socially as well as economically of modern social structures British Labour and Higher Education focuses on the development of Labour policy on higher education from 1945 to 2000 It analyses the rapid expansion and series of fundamental transformations in higher education and Labour s part in both shaping and reacting to them The authors explore the historical evolution and Labour s varying policy initiatives in the period and question the place higher education has occupied in the various strands of Labour ideology As always with Labourism perspectives are contentious and contested spanning the centralist Fabians the liberal moralists and the socialist left How far if at all have Labour s policy stances in this area confronted the elite social reproduction functions of universities or the instrumentalist needs of corporate capitalism Has this policy evolution given concrete evidence to support Ralph Miliband s pessimistic assessment of Labourism as a political formation structurally unable to confront capitalist social structures or to see a viable Third Way as advocated by New Labour Education and Recruitment of Junior Professionals Brenda White Associates, British Library. Research and Development Department, 1989 The Early Careers of 1980 Graduates Peter J. Dolton, Gerald H. Makepeace, G. D. Inchley, 1990 Annual Report of the Agricultural Experiment Station of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute Alabama Polytechnic Institute. Agricultural Experiment Station, 1919 DE Research Papers , 1992 Making Connections Mary Kennedy, Cathy Lubelska, Val Walsh, 2005-08-04 First Published in 1993 This is a wide ranging collection of essays bringing together contributions which address key issues and debates in contemporary women s studies and feminism The variety of feminist identities and perspectives which emerge from these pages reveals the extent to which the diversities of women s experiences continue to reshape feminist knowledge and politics A recurrent theme is how to work with our diversities and to make connections which do not recreate hierarchies or oppressive practices privileging the experiences and aims of some women over those of others Making Connections is an important contribution to ongoing feminist debates

Adult Students and Higher Education Henry Arthur Jones, Katherine E. Williams, 1979 Disaffection And Diversity Judith Calder, 2004-01-14 First Published in 1993 A quiet but profound revolution in the design and delivery of learning opportunities for adults and in the accreditation of learning outcomes is taking place Higher education is expanding at a rate which exceeds even that of the Robbins era alternative routes for adults into further and higher education and into training are being introduced through the use of Access courses and through the recognition of competencies acquired in a whole variety of different ways The structure of the courses and training which adults can now undertake the methods of teaching those courses and the types of qualifications which are beginning to be awarded reflect the accelerating social technological and economic changes in the UK It is aimed at professionals who are engaged in the management provision or supervision of organized learning and training opportunities for adults
