The Cultural Landscapes of Port au Choix M. A. P. Renouf, 2011-03-28 Newfoundland lies at the intersection of arctic and more temperate regions and commensurate with this geography, populations of two Amerindian and two Paleoeskimo cultural traditions occupied Port au Choix in northern Newfoundland, Canada for centuries and millennia. Over the past two decades, The Port au Choix Archaeology Project has sought a comparative understanding of how these different cultures, each with their particular origin and historical trajectory, adapted to the changing physical and social environments, impacted their physical surroundings and created cultural landscapes. This volume brings together the research of Renouf, her colleagues and her students who together employ multiple perspectives and methods to provide a detailed reconstruction and understanding of the long term history of Port au Choix. Although geographically focussed on a northern coastal area, this volume has wider implications for understanding archaeological landscapes, human environment interactions and hunter-gatherer societies.

The Psychology Research Handbook Frederick T. L. Leong, James T. Austin, 2023-11-16 In the Third Edition of The Psychology Research Handbook, editors Frederick T. L. Leong and James T. Austin have assembled experienced expert researchers to provide graduate students and research assistants with a comprehensive framework for conducting many types of psychology research. The book is organized around the idea of a research script following the step by step process of research planning, design, data collection, analysis and disseminating research. Many chapters are coauthored by advanced graduate students to give their fellow students a sense of real world research, adding to the clarity and practicality of many chapters. Students and instructors alike will appreciate chapters on topics typically missing from introductory methods texts, including applying for research grants, dealing with journal editors and reviewers, working within research teams and conducting cross cultural research. Structures such as recommended readings and exercises guide students to develop and expand their research skills. New chapters include Power and Evidence, IRB as Critical Collaborators in Research, Alternative Data Collection Strategies, Structural Equation Modeling and Replicability and Reproducibility. A comprehensive, easy to understand guide to the entire research process, this book quickly and efficiently equips advanced students and research assistants to conduct a full research project
